

Dear Sirs: I am of the opinion that a free market system works best with minimal government intervention and oversight. It follows that your proposed monitoring of private accounts is at least unnecessary and at most an invasion of privacy in a world of far too much "patriot act" loss of personal liberties. Please do not impose any more government encroachments on our freedoms!

Sincerely yours, Gary A. Besley