RE: M1 Finance LLC (Respondent)
Member Firm
CRD No. 281242

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216, Respondent M1 Finance LLC submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent (AWC) for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against Respondent alleging violations based on the same factual findings described in this AWC.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. Respondent accepts and consents to the following findings by FINRA without admitting or denying them:

BACKGROUND

M1 Finance LLC (M1 Finance), which became a FINRA member in 2016, provides commission-free, self-directed trading to retail investors through its mobile application and website. Headquartered in Chicago, Illinois the firm has approximately 60 registered representatives at one branch office.<sup>1</sup>

OVERVIEW

From January 2019 to June 2023, M1 Finance failed to establish, maintain, and enforce a reasonably designed supervisory system, including written supervisory procedures (WSPs), for its fully paid securities lending business. Therefore, the firm violated FINRA Rules 3110 and 2010.

From January 2019 to February 2023, the firm distributed documents to more than 1.5 million retail investors containing misrepresentations about the compensation that those investors would receive for participating in fully paid securities lending. By making these misleading statements to customers, M1 Finance violated FINRA Rule 2010. The misstatements also violated the content standards of FINRA's advertising rule; therefore, the firm also violated FINRA Rules 2210(d) and 2010.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

This matter originated from a FINRA examination of firms offering fully paid securities lending to retail customers.

1. Fully paid securities lending in general

Fully paid securities lending is a practice through which a clearing firm borrows a customer's fully paid or excess margin securities and lends them to a third party in exchange for a daily borrowing fee. A clearing firm must obtain customer consent before borrowing or lending that customer's securities. Fully paid lending programs are operated by clearing firms, which custody customer securities.<sup>2</sup>

If a customer is enrolled in a fully paid securities lending program, the clearing firm determines which securities to borrow, when, and on what terms. When the clearing firm identifies a security it wants to borrow in an enrolled customer's account, the clearing firm removes the security from the customer's account and deposits collateral (cash or cash equivalents) with a value equal to or greater than the value of the security in a bank account managed by a trustee for the benefit of the enrolled customer. The clearing firm then lends the security to a third party and collects a daily borrowing fee.<sup>3</sup> The borrow rate is variable and generally reflects the market for the borrowed security. For example, a security for which there is high demand and limited supply typically will garner a higher interest rate than a security which is more liquid or for which there is limited demand.

Should a customer wish to sell borrowed securities, the clearing firm will recall them from the third-party borrower (or otherwise obtain shares to make delivery on the customer's sale). When a customer's shares are borrowed over a dividend payment date, the customer receives a cash payment in lieu of the dividend. Payments in lieu of dividends are taxed as regular income, like nonqualified dividends. Payments in lieu of dividends may be taxed at a higher rate than qualified dividends. Customers who lend their shares out also lose, for the duration of the securities loan, both SIPC protection and voting rights (because voting rights for borrowed shares transfer to the third party borrowing those shares).

2. M1 Finance's fully paid securities lending business

Since at least January 2019, M1 Finance has participated in a fully paid securities lending program (FPLP) offered by its clearing firm. In its agreement with its clearing firm, M1 Finance: agreed to determine whether its customers could participate in the FPLP; set the criteria for determining which customers could participate in the FPLP; and determine what compensation, if any, would be paid to customers when their fully paid or excess margin securities were borrowed.

<sup>2</sup> M1 Finance does not custody customer securities and does not itself borrow or lend those securities.

<sup>3</sup> The third-party borrowing firm also posts collateral with the clearing firm, keeping the clearing firm net capital neutral.

At account opening, M1 Finance provided to its customers a Master Securities Lending Agreement (MSLA), which is a contract between the customer and the clearing firm that gives the clearing firm the right to borrow the customer's fully paid and excess margin securities. M1 Finance also provided to its customers at account opening a disclosure document describing the features and risks of the FPLP. Both the MSLA and disclosure document were drafted by M1 Finance's clearing firm.

Between January 2019 and June 2023, M1 Finance required that its retail customers, as a condition of opening an account at the firm, consent to the MSLA. Those customers could then later opt-out of the FPLP at any time.

3. M1 Finance failed to establish, maintain, and enforce a reasonably designed supervisory system or WSPs for fully paid securities lending

FINRA Rule 3110(a) requires each member firm to establish and maintain a system to supervise the activities of each associated person that is reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations, and with applicable FINRA rules. FINRA Rule 3110(b) requires member firms to establish, maintain, and enforce written procedures to supervise the types of business in which it engages and the activities of its associated persons that are reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations, and with applicable FINRA rules. A violation of FINRA Rule 3110 also is a violation of FINRA Rule 2010, which requires member firms to observe high standards of commercial honor and just and equitable principles of trade in the conduct of their business.

From January 2019 to June 2023, M1 Finance failed to establish and maintain a reasonably designed supervisory system, including WSPs, for its fully paid securities lending business. Although M1 Finance agreed to determine which of its customers could participate in the FPLP, the firm did not take reasonable steps to make appropriateness determinations prior to enrolling customers in the FPLP. Instead, all new customers were enrolled in the FPLP at account opening.

From January 2019 to June 2023, more than 1.5 million customers were automatically enrolled in the FPLP as part of the account opening process. M1 Finance received over $12.5 million in revenue (its share of the daily borrowing fees) from its clearing firm for the lending of its customers' shares. However, none of that revenue was paid to M1 Finance's customers. Customers lost, for the duration of the securities loan, both SIPC protection and voting rights. Moreover, some of the customers who participated in the FPLP received cash payments in lieu of dividends and thus were potentially subject to adverse tax consequences.

Since July 5, 2023, M1 Finance customers enrolled in the FPLP have received a portion of the borrowing fees generated through the lending of their fully paid and excess margin shares. M1 Finance also has developed and implemented WSPs concerning fully paid securities lending.

By failing to establish, maintain, and enforce a supervisory system, including WSPs, for fully paid securities lending, M1 Finance violated FINRA Rules 3110 and 2010.

4. M1 Finance distributed documents to customers that contained misrepresentations regarding the compensation that customers would receive for participating in the FPLP

Making a misrepresentation or omission of a material fact to customers violates FINRA Rule 2010, as doing so is inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade.

FINRA Rule 2210 includes certain content standards that apply to all member communications, including “retail communications,” which are defined as “any written (including electronic) communication that is distributed or made available to more than 25 retail investors within any 30 calendar-day period.” FINRA Rule 2210(d)(1)(B) requires that members not make any false, exaggerated, unwarranted, promissory or misleading statement or claim in any communication. The rule further states that no member may publish, circulate or distribute any communication that the member knows or has reason to know contains any untrue statement of a material fact or is otherwise false or misleading. A violation of FINRA Rule 2210 also is a violation of FINRA Rule 2010.

M1 Finance provided the MSLA and the FPLP disclosure document to customers at account opening. These documents, which were created and provided to M1 Finance by its clearing firm, contained misrepresentations regarding the compensation that M1 Finance customers would receive from participating in the FPLP. In particular, the FPLP disclosure document stated that customers would “receive a loan fee, which will be credited daily, and generally represents a certain percentage of the net loan fee received by [the clearing firm] for relending [the customer’s] shares.” The FPLP disclosure document further stated to customers that the clearing firm “will pay you a loan fee for the shares that it borrows from you.” These statements were false. From January 2019 to June 2023, neither the clearing firm nor M1 Finance paid customers any money for lending their shares in connection with the FPLP. Further, the MSLA stated that loan fees would be split between the clearing firm and M1 Finance, but also stated that customers who enrolled in the FPLP would be compensated via reduced management fees. That statement was misleading because M1 Finance did not charge management fees to any customer, regardless of whether they opted out of the FPLP.

In February 2023, M1 Finance added a cover page to both the MSLA and FPLP disclosure document that stated that the customer would not receive any share of the loan fees.

Therefore, between January 2019 and February 2023, M1 Finance violated FINRA Rule 2210(d)(1)(B) and Rule 2010, both independently and by virtue of violating Rule 2210(d)(1)(B).

B. Respondent also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

- a censure;

- a $500,000 fine; and
- restitution of $736,917.86 plus interest as described below.<sup>4</sup>

Respondent agrees to pay the monetary sanctions upon notice that this AWC has been accepted and that such payment is due and payable. Respondent has submitted an Election of Payment form showing the method by which it proposes to pay the fine imposed.

Restitution is ordered to be paid to the customers listed on Attachment A to this AWC (Eligible Customers) in the total amount of $736,917.86, plus interest at the rate set forth in Section 6621(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 6621(a)(2), from July 6, 2023 until the date this AWC is accepted by the National Adjudicatory Council (NAC).

A registered principal on behalf of Respondent shall submit satisfactory proof of payment of restitution and interest (separately specifying the date and amount of each paid to each Eligible Customer) or of reasonable and documented efforts undertaken to effect restitution. Such proof shall be submitted by email to EnforcementNotice@FINRA.org from a work-related account of the registered principal of Respondent. The email must identify Respondent and the case number and include a copy of the check, money order, or other method of payment. This proof shall be provided by email to EnforcementNotice@FINRA.org no later than 120 days after the date of the notice of acceptance of the AWC.

The restitution amount plus interest to be paid to each Eligible Customer shall be treated by the Respondent as the Eligible Customer's property for purposes of state escheatment, unclaimed property, abandoned property, and similar laws. If after reasonable and documented efforts undertaken to effect restitution Respondent is unable to pay all Eligible Customers within 120 days after the date of the notice of acceptance of the AWC, Respondent shall submit to FINRA in the manner described above a list of the unpaid Eligible Customers and a description of Respondent's plan, not unacceptable to FINRA, to comply with the applicable escheatment, unclaimed property, abandoned property, or similar laws for each such Eligible Customer.

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim an inability to pay, now or at any time after the execution of this AWC, the monetary sanctions imposed in this matter.

The imposition of a restitution order or any other monetary sanctions in this AWC, and the timing of such ordered payments, does not preclude customers from pursuing their own actions to obtain restitution or other remedies.

<sup>4</sup> The restitution represents a percentage of the payments in lieu of dividends received by M1 Finance's customers, which, as noted, may be subject to higher tax rates than qualified dividends.

Restitution payments to customers shall be preceded or accompanied by a letter, not unacceptable to FINRA, describing the reason for the payment and the fact that the payment is being made pursuant to a settlement with FINRA and as a term of this AWC.

The sanctions imposed in this AWC shall be effective on a date set by FINRA.
