Opening Night Reception at the Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History

Tuesday, May 16, 2017 | 7:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

All conference attendees are invited to join us at the Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History for an exciting opening night reception. Explore nine exhibit halls—featuring the Butterfly Pavilion, the mysterious Hope Diamond and much more—while networking with regulators and peers. Participate in several interactive activities and/or relax in one of the themed dining areas.

We look forward to seeing you there.
