Opening-Night Reception at the Smithsonian National Portrait Gallery

Monday, May 21, 2018 | 7:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

All conference attendees are invited to join us at the Smithsonian National Portrait Gallery for an exciting opening-night reception. Explore a collection of portraits in more than 15 galleries—featuring presidents, scientists, activists, actors and much more—while networking with regulators and industry peers. Participate in several interactive activities, network with peers in one of the dining areas and/or relax in the courtyard under the glass canopy.

Experience portraiture beyond the frame. We look forward to sharing the faces and stories of inspiring Americans with you. It will be an evening you do not want to miss.

Attire

The dress code for the reception is business casual.
Note: You must wear your name tag to be admitted to the reception.
