FINANCIAL INDUSTRY REGULATORY AUTHORITY LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE, WAIVER AND CONSENT NO. 2015044309001

TO: Department of Enforcement Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA")

RE: Raymond James & Associates, Inc., Respondent Member CRD No. 705

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216 of FINRA's Code of Procedure, Raymond James & Associates, Inc. ("Raymond James" or the "Firm") submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent ("AWC") for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against the Firm alleging violations based on the same factual findings described herein.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

A. The Firm hereby accepts and consents, without admitting or denying the findings, and solely for the purposes of this proceeding and any other proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of the following findings by FINRA:

BACKGROUND

Raymond James maintains its principal place of business in St. Petersburg, Florida.¹ The Firm is a multi-service brokerage firm that, among other things, provides retail and institutional brokerage, investment banking services, investment advisory services, and correspondent clearing services for approximately 38 correspondent firms. Raymond James has more than 3,200 financial advisors.

RELEVANT DISCIPLINARY HISTORY

Raymond James has no relevant disciplinary history.

OVERVIEW

From at least July 1, 2009 through December 31, 2014 (the "Relevant Period"), Raymond James disadvantaged certain retirement plan and charitable organization customers that were eligible to purchase Class A shares in certain mutual funds without a front-end sales charge ("Eligible Customers") but were instead sold Class A shares with a front-end sales charge or Class B or C shares with back-end sales charges and higher ongoing fees and expenses. During the Relevant Period, Raymond James failed to establish and maintain a supervisory system and procedures reasonably designed to ensure that Eligible Customers who purchased mutual fund shares received the benefit of applicable sales charge waivers. As a result, the Firm violated NASD Conduct Rule 3010 (for misconduct before December 1, 2014) and FINRA Rules 3110 (for misconduct on or after December 1, 2014) and 2010.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

Background of Mutual Fund Shares Classes

Raymond James sells mutual funds with different classes of shares representing interests in the same portfolio of securities, but differing in the structure and amount of both sales charges paid directly by shareholders and continuous, asset-based fees assessed on each shareholder's investment. Share class features and expenses, including fees and expenses and available sales charge waivers, are described by each mutual fund in its prospectus and/or statement of additional information.

Class A shares typically are subject to a front-end sales charge when originally purchased, and have annual fund expenses, including ongoing distribution and service fees ("fees") that are typically 0.25 percent. The majority of the front-end charge is paid to the selling broker-dealer as a concession. Investors purchase Class A shares at the applicable Net Asset Value ("NAV"), plus the initial sales charge. Most funds, however, offer certain investors a waiver of the initial sales charge associated with Class A shares under certain circumstances ("sales charge waiver").

Class B and C shares typically do not carry a front-end sales charge but have significantly higher fees (typically 1.00 percent) and may be subject to a contingent deferred sales charge ("CDSC").

Some mutual funds offer Class R shares for purchase by retirement plans. Class R shares typically are sold without a front-end sales charge. However, Class R shares typically have higher fees than Class A shares.

The different sales charges, breakpoints, waivers and fees associated with different share classes affect mutual fund investors' returns. If an investor qualifies for a Class A sales charge waiver and purchases Class A shares, the investor will not pay a front-end sales load. In contrast, a purchase of Class B or C shares of the same fund will be subject to higher ongoing fees, as well as potential application of a CDSC. Therefore, if an investor qualifies for a Class A sales charge waiver, there would be no reason for the investor to purchase any other class of shares that has a sales load and/or higher annual expenses.

Many mutual funds waive their up-front sales charges for certain retirement plans and charitable organizations. Some mutual funds available on the Firm's retail platform offered such waivers and disclosed those waivers in their prospectuses. However, the Firm failed to apply the waivers to certain Eligible Customers that purchased shares of these mutual funds in brokerage accounts.

Raymond James Failed to Identify and Apply Available Sales Charge Waivers to Eligible Retirement Accounts and Charitable Organizations

During the Relevant Period, Raymond James disadvantaged certain Eligible Customers that were sold Class A shares with a front-end sales charge or Class B or C shares with back-end sales charges and higher ongoing fees and expenses.

Raymond James Investigation and Self-Reporting to FINRA

In June 2014, Raymond James began a review to determine whether the Firm had provided available sales charge waivers to Eligible Customers. Based on this review, in November 2014, Raymond James self-reported to FINRA that Eligible Customers had not received available sales charge waivers. Specifically, the Firm identified approximately 59,831 transactions in 4,221 accounts in which an available sales charge waiver was not applied. As a result of the Firm's failure to apply available sales charge waivers, Eligible Customers were overcharged by approximately $4,118,679.77 for mutual fund purchases made during the Relevant Period. As part of this settlement, Raymond James agrees to pay restitution of approximately $4,489,553.70 to Eligible Customers (i.e., the amount they were overcharged plus interest). The Firm will also ensure that retirement and charitable waivers are appropriately applied to all future transactions.

Raymond James Supervisory Failures

Raymond James failed to reasonably supervise the application of sales charge waivers in eligible mutual fund sales. During the Relevant Period, the Firm relied on financial advisors to determine the applicability of sales charge waivers, but failed to maintain adequate written policies or procedures to assist financial advisors in making this determination. For instance, Raymond James failed to establish and maintain written procedures to identify applicable fund sales charge waivers in fund prospectuses for Eligible Customers.

In addition, the Firm failed to adequately notify and train its financial advisors regarding the availability of mutual fund sales charge waivers for Eligible Customers. Finally, the Firm failed to adopt any controls to detect instances in which the firm did not provide sales charge waivers to Eligible Customers in connection with their mutual fund purchases.

By failing to reasonably supervise mutual fund sales to ensure that Eligible Customers who purchased mutual fund shares received the benefit of applicable sales charge waivers, the Firm violated NASD Conduct Rule 3010 (for misconduct before December 1, 2014) and FINRA Rules 3110 (for misconduct on or after December 1, 2014) and 2010.

OTHER FACTORS

In resolving this matter, FINRA has recognized the extraordinary cooperation of Raymond James for having: (1) initiated, prior to detection or intervention by a regulator, an investigation to identify whether Eligible Customers received sales charge waivers during the Relevant Period; (2) promptly established a plan of remediation for Eligible Customers who did not receive appropriate sales charge waivers; (3) promptly self-reported to FINRA; (4) promptly taken action and remedial steps to correct the violative conduct; and (5) employed subsequent corrective measures, prior to detection or intervention by a regulator, to revise its procedures to avoid recurrence of the misconduct.

- B. The Firm also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:
 - 1. A censure; and
 - 2. Raymond James agrees to pay restitution to the customers listed on Attachment A in the total amount of $4,489,553.70, which is calculated as follows:
 - a. For each customer who paid an initial sales charge, Raymond James shall refund the sales charge paid, plus interest, from the date of purchase through the payment date at the rate set forth in Section 6621(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 6621(a)(2) (the "IRS Rate").
 - b. For each customer who purchased shares other than Class A shares, Raymond James shall pay restitution to the customer sufficient to place the customer in a substantially equivalent financial position to the position in which the customer would have been had the customer purchased Class A shares at NAV. The restitution will include: (i) the asset-based expense differential for the Class B or C share purchases, using an estimate of 75 basis points as the expense differential; (ii) CDSCs for eligible sales at, and transfers from, the Firm; and (iii) interest for these amounts from the settlement date of each qualifying purchase, sale or transfer until the position is flat, at the IRS rate.

- c. A registered principal on behalf of Respondent firm shall submit satisfactory proof of payment of restitution or of reasonable and documented efforts undertaken to effect restitution. Such proof shall be submitted to Kevin D. Rosen, Senior Regional Counsel, FINRA Enforcement, 5200 Town Center Circle, Tower I, Suite 200, Boca Raton, Florida 33486 either by letter that identifies the Respondent and the case number or by e-mail from a work-related account of the registered principal of Respondent firm to EnforcementNotice@FINRA.org. This proof shall be provided to the FINRA staff member listed above no later than 120 days after acceptance of the AWC.
- d. If for any reason Respondent cannot locate any customer identified in Attachment A after reasonable and documented efforts, Respondent shall move the money to the appropriate escheat account. Respondent will follow the standard escheatment process, adhering with each state's required time frames based on the state in which the customer is last known to have resided. Respondent shall provide satisfactory proof of such action to the FINRA staff member identified above and in the manner described above, within 14 days of moving the undistributed restitution and interest to the appropriate escheat account.
- e. Upon written request showing good cause, FINRA staff may extend any of the procedural dates set forth above; and
- 3. With respect to any Eligible Customer that purchased Class B or C shares and still holds such shares in an account at the Firm, the Firm shall offer such customer the option of converting such Class B or C shares to Class A shares. Upon the election of an Eligible Customer to convert the Eligible Customer's Class B or C shares to Class A shares, the Firm shall cause such conversion to occur at no expense to the Eligible Customer.

The Firm has specifically and voluntarily waived any right to claim an inability to pay at any time hereafter the restitution and any monetary sanctions imposed in this matter.

The imposition of a restitution order or any other monetary sanction herein, and the timing of such ordered payments, does not preclude customers from pursuing their own actions to obtain restitution or other remedies.

The sanctions imposed herein shall be effective on a date set by FINRA staff.

II.

WAIVER OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

The Firm specifically and voluntarily waives the following rights granted under FINRA's Code of Procedure:

- A. To have a Complaint issued specifying the allegations against it;
- B. To be notified of the Complaint and have the opportunity to answer the allegations in writing;
- C. To defend against the allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a hearing panel, to have a written record of the hearing made and to have a written decision issued; and
- D. To appeal any such decision to the National Adjudicatory Council ("NAC") and then to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a U.S. Court of Appeals.

Further, the Firm specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the Chief Legal Officer, the NAC, or any member of the NAC, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including acceptance or rejection of this AWC.

The Firm further specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that a person violated the ex parte prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9143 or the separation of functions prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9144, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

Ш.

OTHER MATTERS

The Firm understands that:

- A. Submission of this AWC is voluntary and will not resolve this matter unless and until it has been reviewed and accepted by the NAC, a Review Subcommittee of the NAC, or the Office of Disciplinary Affairs ("ODA"), pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216;
- B. If this AWC is not accepted, its submission will not be used as evidence to prove any of the allegations against the Firm; and

- С. If accepted:
 - 1. this AWC will become part of the Firm's permanent disciplinary record and may be considered in any future actions brought by FINRA or any other regulator against the Firm:
 - this AWC will be made available through FINRA's public disclosure 2. program in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313;
 - FINRA may make a public announcement concerning this agreement and 3. the subject matter thereof in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313; and
 - 4. The Firm may not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement, including in regulatory filings or otherwise, denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this AWC or create the impression that the AWC is without factual basis. The Firm may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this AWC. Nothing in this provision affects the Firm's: (i) testimonial obligations: or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which FINRA is not a party.
- D. The Firm may attach a Corrective Action Statement to this AWC that is a statement of demonstrable corrective steps taken to prevent future misconduct. The Firm understands that it may not deny the charges or make any statement that is inconsistent with the AWC in this Statement. This Statement does not constitute factual or legal findings by FINRA, nor does it reflect the views of FINRA or its staff,

The undersigned, on behalf of the Firm, certifies that a person duly authorized to act on its behalf has read and understand all of the provisions of this AWC and have been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that I have agreed to its provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth herein and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a Complaint, has been made to induce the Firm to submit it,
