Re: File No. SR-NASD-2002-98 – Revisions to By-Laws Regarding the Regulatory Fee and the SEC Section 31 Transaction Fee; Amendment No. 1

Dear Ms. England:

On July 23, 2002, NASD filed a proposed rule change to Schedule A to the NASD By-Laws to eliminate the current Regulatory Fee assessed upon its members and to institute a new transaction-based Trading Activity Fee. The proposed rule change was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for immediate effectiveness pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934¹ and Rule 19b-4(f)(2) thereunder.² NASD hereby submits Amendment No. 1 to SR-NASD-2002-98 (the “rule filing”). Enclosed as Exhibit 1 is a draft Notice, which incorporates the amendments described herein to the proposed rule language, to facilitate publication in the Federal Register, together with a 3-1/2” disk containing Exhibit 1 in Microsoft Word 7.0 format. The proposed rule language in Exhibit 1 replaces and completely supercedes the previously proposed rule language. The following is a description of the changes made pursuant to this Amendment No. 1 (new language is underlined and deleted text is bracketed).

1. NASD is amending proposed Section 3 (SEC Transaction Fee) on page 6 of the rule filing as follows:

Each member shall be assessed an SEC transaction fee. The amount shall be determined by the SEC in accordance with Section 31 of the Act.

The same change should be made to proposed Section 3 on page 22 of Exhibit 1 to the rule filing.

2. NASD is amending proposed Section 6(b) (Assessments and Fees for New Members, Resigning Members and Successor Organizations) on pages 8 and 9 of the rule filing as follows:

¹ 15 USC 78s(b)(3)(A)(ii) (2001).

² 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(2) (2001).

A member [which] that is a successor organization to a previous member or members shall assume the unpaid balance of the assessments of its predecessor or predecessors and its next assessment shall be determined, if applicable, upon the assessment data of its predecessors. Such successor member shall not be required to re-register branch offices and personnel of predecessor members or pay registration fees therefor. Whether a member is the successor organization to a previous member or members shall be determined by NASD upon a consideration of the terms and conditions of the particular merger, consolidation, reorganization, or succession. A member [which] that has simply acquired the personnel and offices of another member under circumstances [which] that do not constitute the member a successor organization shall not be required to assume the unpaid assessments of the other member. Such non-successor member shall be required to re-register the branch offices and personnel acquired from the other member and pay applicable registration fees.

The same change should be made to proposed Section 6(b) on pages 24 and 25 of Exhibit 1 to the rule filing.

3. NASD is amending proposed Section 13 (Application and Annual Fees for Member Firms with Statutorily Disqualified Individuals) on pages 10 and 11 of the rule filing as follows:

- (a) Any member firm seeking to employ or continuing to employ as an associated person any individual who is subject to a disqualification from association with a member as set forth in Article III, Section 4 of NASD's By-Laws shall, upon the filing of an application pursuant to Article III, Section 3, paragraph (d) of NASD's By-Laws, pay to NASD a fee of $1,500.00. Any member firm whose application filed pursuant to Article III, Section 3, paragraph (d) of NASD's By-Laws results in a full hearing for eligibility in NASD pursuant to the Rule 9640 Series, shall pay to NASD an additional fee of $2,500.00.
- (b) Any member firm continuing to employ as an associated person any individual subject to disqualification from association with a member as set forth in Article III, Section 4 of NASD's By-Laws shall pay annually to NASD a fee of $1,500.00 when such person or individual is classified as a Tier 1 statutorily disqualified individual, and a fee of $1,000.00 when such person or individual is classified as a Tier 2 statutorily disqualified individual.

The same change should be made to proposed Section 13 on pages 26 and 27 of Exhibit 1 to the rule filing.

4. NASD had proposed to implement the rule change on September 1, 2002. NASD hereby extends the implementation date for the proposed rule change to October 1, 2002. NASD believes that this one-month extension will provide its members sufficient time to make any necessary systems changes to reflect the new pricing structure. Accordingly, NASD is amending the last sentence under Item 2(a) on page 12 of the rule filing as follows:

The rule change will become operational on [September] October 1, 2002.

NASD also is amending the last sentence of the first paragraph under Item 7 on page 16 of the rule filing as follows:

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change by NASD Relating to the Regulatory Fee and SEC's Section 31 Transaction Fee

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on July 23, 2002, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC" or "Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by NASD. NASD has designated the proposed rule change as "establishing or changing a due, fee, or other charge" under Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act³ and Rule 19b-4(f)(2) thereunder,⁴ which renders the proposal effective upon receipt of this filing by the Commission. 19b-4(f)(3) thereunder,⁶ which also renders the proposal effective upon receipt of this filing by the Commission.

The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. SELF-REGULATORY ORGANIZATION'S STATEMENT OF THE TERMS OF SUBSTANCE OF THE PROPOSED RULE CHANGE

NASD is proposing to amend Schedule A to NASD By-Laws to amend its member regulatory pricing structure. Under the current structure, three types of fees and assessments are used to fund NASD's member regulatory activities: Regulatory Fee,⁷ Personnel Assessment, and Gross Income Assessment.⁸ The proposed restructuring is comprised of four important amendments: (1) eliminate the Regulatory Fee; (2) institute a new transaction-based Trading Activity Fee similar to the SEC's Section 31 Fee; (3) increase the rates assessed to member firms under the Personnel Assessment; and (4) implement a simplified three-tiered flat rate for the Gross Income Assessment and eliminate current deductions and exclusions.⁹ This rule filing is a part of a package of two separate yet related rule filings¹⁰ being submitted to the SEC as a result

⁶ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(3).

⁷ The Regulatory Fee is described in Section 8(a) of Schedule A to NASD By-Laws.

⁸ The Personnel Assessment and Gross Income Assessment are described in Section 1 of Schedule A to NASD By-Laws.

⁹ The changes resulting from the proposed restructuring would be revenue neutral.

¹⁰ See also SR-NASD-2002-99.

of a review of the overall NASD pricing structure¹¹ and is intended to address the first two amendments to NASD pricing restructuring by eliminating the Regulatory Fee and instituting a new transaction-based Trading Activity Fee.

These fees assessed upon and paid by member firms are used by NASD to fund NASD's member regulatory activities, including the supervision and regulation of members through examinations, processing of membership applications, financial monitoring, policy, rulemaking, interpretative, and enforcement activities. These amendments to this pricing structure are intended to serve the following purposes: (1) simplify NASD's fee structure; (2) ensure fairness in NASD's fee structure by assessing higher fees to those member firms that require more NASD regulatory services; (3) assess a transaction-based fee in a manner that, unlike the Regulatory Fee, does not influence where members choose to execute trades; (4) reduce the cyclical nature of the current NASD fee structure; and (5) eliminate NASD's reliance on funds generated from the Regulatory Fee on transactions executed through Nasdaq.

The current structure of assessing Regulatory Fees for Nasdaq transactions is no longer appropriate for three reasons. First, Nasdaq is separating from NASD and registering as a national securities exchange. Second, the current fee structure is out of step with recent changes in the markets, such as the drastic growth in trading volumes, reductions in average trade size, decimalization, and trading no longer remaining exclusive to the listing exchange. Finally, the Regulatory Fee is only assessed against Nasdaq-listed and other transactions that are reported ¹¹ NASD, in its pricing restructuring review, proposed changes to the Regulatory Fee in Special Notice to Members 02-09 and requested comments. NASD received a number of comments. In response to those comments, the proposal set forth in Special Notice to Members 02-09 is not being pursued. This rule filing replaces the changes previously proposed.

through the Automated Confirmation Transaction (ACT) system,¹² although these fees are used to support member regulatory activities across all markets. In addition, NASD is proposing revisions to NASD By-Laws that are technical in nature to reflect NASD's change in corporate name. For example, references to "the Association" have been replaced with "NASD" throughout the By-Laws.

Below is the text of the proposed rule change. Proposed new language is underlined; proposed deletions are in brackets.

II. SELF-REGULATORY ORGANIZATION'S STATEMENT OF THE PURPOSE OF, AND STATUTORY BASIS FOR, THE PROPOSED RULE CHANGE

In its filing with the Commission, NASD included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. NASD has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections (A), (B), and (C) below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

(A) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

(1) Purpose

The Regulatory Fee, Personnel Assessment and Gross Income Assessment are currently used to fund NASD's member regulatory activities, including the supervision and regulation of members through examinations, processing of membership applications, financial monitoring, policy, rulemaking, interpretive, and enforcement activities. This fee structure has become outdated, given the separation of NASD from Nasdaq, market developments, and market conditions. The proposed changes are revenue neutral and strive to better align NASD's Member Regulation fees with its functions, efforts, and costs.

The amendments to this pricing structure are intended to serve the following purposes:

(1) simplify NASD's fee structure; (2) ensure fairness in NASD's fee structure by assessing higher fees to those member firms that drive regulatory costs; (3) assess a transaction-based fee in a manner that, unlike the Regulatory Fee, does not influence where members choose to execute trades; (4) reduce the cyclical nature of the current NASD fee structure; and (5) eliminate NASD's reliance on funds generated from the Regulatory Fee on transactions executed through Nasdaq.

NASD's membership population varies greatly with regard to factors that drive the cost of required regulation. Historically, member regulatory fees were derived primarily from industry revenues and Nasdaq transactions, while NASD derived minimal fees from the registration of member firm personnel. One key priority during the review process is to link the costs of regulating NASD member firms to the fees generated by the member firms. The costs to regulate member firms include funding for examinations, processing of membership applications, financial monitoring, policy, rulemaking, interpretative, and enforcement activities.¹³ The proposed amendments to the fee structure should result in a direct link of the cost of regulating a member firm to the fees assessed to and paid by that member firm. Therefore, as before, the three critical factors used to measure regulatory cost for NASD member firms are overall size of the member firm, level of trading activity and number of registered representatives. However, the weight from each as well as the benchmark used to measure industry revenues and transactions has been shifted under the proposed amendments to better link the fees assessed under these factors with NASD's costs. This proposal will maintain the current amount of fees received by NASD overall but promotes a more equitable method for assessing fees, thereby creating a level playing field.

Trading Activity Fee

NASD currently assesses a Regulatory Fee upon its members, through approximately 250 clearing and self-clearing firms, on all transactions reported through Nasdaq's Automated Confirmation Transaction (ACT) system. This fee is only assessed against Nasdaq and other over-the-counter transactions, although the revenues are used to support member regulatory activities across all markets. The Regulatory Fee as assessed also has become a factor in determining upon which market members choose to execute trades. NASD, by its fee assessment, should not promote or disadvantage one trading venue over alternative trading venues. Therefore, the proposed rule change would eliminate the existing Nasdaq market-based Regulatory Fee and would institute a transaction-based Trading Activity Fee similar to the SEC's

¹³ NASD's member regulatory revenues have funded its costs on average within 5% over the past five years. In years where shortfalls occurred, prices were not increased. In years where overages occurred, rebates were given to Members.

Section 31 Fee. The proposed fee would be assessed on the sell-side of all member transactions in all covered securities regardless of where the trade is executed.

NASD anticipate that revenue from the collection of the Trading Activity fee will be reduced by approximately 50%. To offset the reduction in the Trading Activity Fee, NASD has filed a separate rule filing (SR-NASD-2002-99) which increases the rates for the Personnel Assessment. This increase will result in making the Personnel Assessment a more appropriate base to measure the cost of regulating member firms and fund member regulatory activities.

Phase-In

NASD's overall proposal will be revenue neutral to NASD. However, due to the link of revenues to regulatory services provided, there will be impacts, both negative and positive, on individual member firms. To minimize the impact on member firms, the restructuring of fees will be phased in over a three-year period. Specifically, for the Trading Activity Fee, since the revenue generated from this fee would be reduced by approximately 50%, the fee reduction will be phased in at a rate of 33% in Year 1, 67% in Year 2 and 100% in Year 3.

(2) Statutory Basis

NASD believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act, including Section 15A(b)(5) of the Act,¹⁴ which requires, among other things, that NASD's rules provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among members and issuers and other persons using any facility or system which NASD operates or controls. The Trading Activity fee is objectively allocated to NASD members. Moreover, the level of the fee is reasonable because it relates to the recovery of the costs of supervising and regulating members.

(B) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

NASD does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended.

(C) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received on the current proposal.

III. DATE OF EFFECTIVENESS OF THE PROPOSED RULE CHANGE AND TIMING FOR COMMISSION ACTION

The proposed rule change regarding fees and assessments is effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act¹⁵ and Rule 19b-4(f)(2) thereunder,¹⁶ because the proposal is establishing or changing a due, fee, or other charge. NASD will not implement this rule change until October 1, 2002.

The proposed rule change regarding the corporate name change to NASD is effective immediately pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(iii)¹⁷ of the Act and Rule 19b-4(f)(3) thereunder,¹⁸ as it is concerned solely with the administration of the self-regulatory organization.

¹⁷ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(iii).

¹⁸ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(3).

At any time within 60 days of this filing, the Commission may summarily abrogate this proposal if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. SOLICITATION OF COMMENTS

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549.
