Such partial amendment shall be clearly identified and marked to show deletions and additions.

1. Text of Proposed Rule Change

(a) Pursuant to the provisions of Section 19(b)(1)¹ of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”), the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (“NASD”) is filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC” or “Commission”) an extension of the effective date of amendments to NASD Rule 3010(g)(2)(A) which defines the term “branch office,” and related IM-3010-1 which provides guidance on factors to be considered by members when conducting internal inspections of offices (“Uniform Branch Office Definition”), from May 1, 2006 to July 3, 2006.² Further, NASD is extending from May 1, 2006 to July 3, 2006 the transition deadline for compliance with Form BR (Uniform Branch Office Registration Form) and Form U4 (Uniform Application for Securities Industry Registration and Transfer) filing requirements for firms with respect to those branch offices of a firm in existence before the close of business on October 14, 2005.³ NASD is not proposing any textual changes to the Rules of NASD.

2. Procedures of the Self-Regulatory Organization

The Uniform Branch Office Definition was approved by the Board of Directors of NASD Regulation, Inc. at its meeting on April 23, 2003, which authorized the filing of the rule change with the SEC. Counsel for The Nasdaq Stock Market and NASD Dispute Resolution have been provided an opportunity to consult with respect to the proposed rule change, pursuant to the Plan of Allocation and Delegation of Functions by NASD to its Subsidiaries. The Board of Governors of NASD had an opportunity to review the proposed rule change at its meeting on April 24, 2003. The Form BR and technical changes to Form U4 and Form U5 were approved by the Board of Governors of NASD at its meeting on July 22, 2004. No other action by NASD is necessary for the filing of the proposed rule change. Section 1(a)(iii) of Article VII of the NASD By-Laws permits the Board of Governors of NASD to issue orders/interpretations, including interpretations of NASD Rules without recourse to the membership for approval.

As further discussed below, NASD is filing the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness. The proposed rule change will become effective upon the date of this filing, thereby extending to July 3, 2006 (1) the effective date of the Uniform Branch Office Definition; and (2) the transition deadline for compliance with Form BR and Form U4 filing requirements for firms with respect to those branch offices of a firm in existence before the close of business on October 14, 2005.

3. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

(a) Purpose

On September 9, 2005, the SEC approved (1) amendments to NASD Rule 3010(g)(2) which defines the term “branch office,” and (2) the adoption of IM-3010-1 to provide interpretive guidance on factors to be considered by members in conducting internal inspections of offices (“Uniform Branch Office Definition”).⁴ In such rule filing, NASD stated that the effective date of the Uniform Branch Office Definition would follow deployment of the new branch office registration system on the Central Registration Depository (CRD®), and that members would have sufficient time to transition to the new Form BR (Uniform Branch Office Registration Form) and associated filing protocols.⁵ Following SEC approval of the Uniform Branch Office Definition, NASD announced in a Notice to Members that the effective date of the amendments would be May 1, 2006.⁶

In addition, on September 30, 2005, the SEC approved the Form BR and conforming and technical changes to Form U4 (Uniform Application for Securities Industry Registration or Transfer) and Form U5 (Uniform Termination Notice for Securities Industry Registration).⁷ In such rule filing and subsequent Notice to Members, NASD announced May 1, 2006 as the transition deadline for compliance with Form BR and Form U4 filing requirements for firms with respect to those branch offices of a firm in existence before the close of business on October 14, 2005. Such firms currently have until May 1, 2006 to (1) complete and file the “conversion” Form BR for each such branch; and (2) with respect to the registered persons employed by such branches, amend all applicable Forms U4 to assign these registered persons to the branch office(s) (or other locations) from which they work.⁸

Numerous members have requested an extension of the May 1, 2006 deadlines as the process for transitioning existing and new branch offices into the new centralized branch office registration system on CRD has been more time consuming than originally anticipated. In particular, members with the largest number of associated persons have stated that the process of completing a Form BR for each branch office location, which form requires more detailed information on each branch location (both existing and new locations) than previously required under Schedule E to Form BD, has been resource and labor intensive. Such members have expressed concern that, despite the allocation of significant resources to meet the May 1, 2006 deadlines, they do not believe they will be able to complete the necessary Forms BR and Forms U4 linking each associated person to a registered office location by such deadline. As a result, NASD believes this one-time extension of the deadlines to July 3, 2006 of (1) the effective date of the Uniform

Branch Office Definition; and (2) the transition deadline for compliance with Form BR and Form U4 filing requirements for firms with respect to those branch offices of a firm in existence before the close of business on October 14, 2005 will allow for a more orderly transition by members to the new Uniform Branch Office Definition and the new centralized branch office registration system on CRD.

NASD is filing the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness. The proposed rule change will become effective upon the date of this filing, thereby extending to July 3, 2006 (1) the effective date of the Uniform Branch Office Definition; and (2) the transition deadline for compliance with Form BR and Form U4 filing requirements for firms with respect to those branch offices of a firm in existence before the close of business on October 14, 2005.

(b) Statutory Basis

NASD believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act⁹, which requires, among other things, that NASD rules must be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. NASD believes that extending from May 1, 2006 to July 3, 2006 (1) the effective date of the Uniform Branch Office Definition; and (2) the transition deadline for compliance with Form BR and Form U4 filing requirements for firms with respect to those branch offices of a firm in existence before the close of business on October 14, 2005 will allow for a more orderly transition by members to the Uniform Branch Office

Definition and the new centralized branch office registration system on CRD. The extension will allow members to comply with the Uniform Branch Office Definition and the new Form BR without unduly burdening members.

4. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

NASD does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

5. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

6. Extension of Time Period for Commission Action

Not applicable.

7. Basis for Summary Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(3) or for Accelerated Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)

The proposed rule change is effective upon filing pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act¹⁰ and Rule 19b-4(f)(1)¹¹ thereunder, in that the proposed rule change constitutes a stated policy, practice, or interpretation with respect to the meaning, administration, or enforcement of an existing rule of NASD. As noted above, the proposed rule change will become effective upon the date of this filing, thereby extending to July 3, 2006 (1) the effective date of the Uniform Branch Office Definition; and (2) the transition deadline for compliance with Form BR and Form U4 filing requirements for firms with respect to those branch offices of a firm in existence before the close of business on October 14, 2005.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

On September 9, 2005, the SEC approved (1) amendments to NASD Rule 3010(g)(2) which defines the term “branch office,” and (2) the adoption of IM-3010-1 to provide interpretive guidance on factors to be considered by members in conducting internal inspections of offices (“Uniform Branch Office Definition”).⁷ In such rule filing, NASD stated that the effective date of the Uniform Branch Office Definition would follow deployment of the new branch office registration system on the Central Registration Depository (CRD®), and that members would have sufficient time to transition to the new Form BR (Uniform Branch Office Registration Form) and associated filing protocols.⁸ Following SEC approval of the Uniform Branch Office Definition, NASD announced in a Notice to Members that the effective date of the amendments would be May 1, 2006.⁹

Securities Industry Registration).¹⁰ In such rule filing and subsequent Notice to Members, NASD announced May 1, 2006 as the transition deadline for compliance with Form BR and Form U4 filing requirements for firms with respect to those branch offices of a firm in existence before the close of business on October 14, 2005. Such firms currently have until May 1, 2006 to (1) complete and file the “conversion” Form BR for each such branch; and (2) with respect to the registered persons employed by such branches, amend all applicable Forms U4 to assign these registered persons to the branch office(s) (or other locations) from which they work.¹¹

NASD is filing the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness. The proposed rule change will become effective upon the date of this filing, thereby extending to July 3, 2006 (1) the effective date of the Uniform Branch Office Definition; and (2) the transition deadline for compliance with Form BR and Form U4 filing requirements for firms with respect to those branch offices of a firm in existence before the close of business on October 14, 2005.

2. Statutory Basis

NASD believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act¹², which requires, among other things, that NASD rules must be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.
