Partial Amendment

Add Remove View

If the self-regulatory organization is amending only part of the text of a lengthy proposed rule change, it may, with the Commission's permission, file only those portions of the text of the proposed rule change in which changes are being made if the filing (i.e. partial amendment) is clearly understandable on its face. Such partial amendment shall be clearly identified and marked to show deletions and additions.

On June 4, 2009, FINRA filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC” or “Commission”) SR-FINRA-2009-040, a proposed rule change to adopt FINRA Rule 2380 (Leverage Limitation for Retail Forex) to prohibit any member firm from permitting a customer to: (1) initiate any forex position with a leverage ratio of greater than 1.5 to 1; and (2) withdraw money from an open forex position that would cause the leverage ratio for such position to be greater than 1.5 to 1. In response to comments received by the Commission, and as set forth in FINRA’s response to comments filed contemporaneously, FINRA is amending the proposed rule change to exempt from the leverage limitation any security that is subject to Regulation T initial margin and FINRA maintenance margin requirements. FINRA believes that securities subject to these margin requirements should not be subject to additional requirements under the proposed rule change.

The amendment to the proposed rule change is set forth below. FINRA is including with this Partial Amendment No. 1 an Exhibit 4 that shows the changes from the original rule text set forth in the proposed rule change.

Exhibit 4 shows the changes proposed in this Partial Amendment No. 1, with the proposed changes in the original filing shown as if adopted. Proposed additions in this Partial Amendment No. 1 appear underlined.
