INTRODUCTION
The Series 6 Examination is the Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative Qualification Examination. The exam is developed and maintained by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). This content outline provides a comprehensive guide to the topics covered on the Series 6 exam. The outline is intended to familiarize examination candidates with the range of subjects covered on the examination, as well as the depth of knowledge required. Sample items are also included to acquaint candidates with the types of multiple-choice items used on the exam. It is recommended that candidates refer to the content outline as part of their preparation to take the exam. Candidates are responsible for planning their course of study in preparation for the exam.

THE PURPOSE OF THE EXAM
The Series 6 exam is designed to assess the competency of entry-level Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representatives. It is intended to safeguard the investing public by helping to ensure that Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representatives are competent to perform their jobs. Given this purpose, the Series 6 exam seeks to measure the degree to which each candidate possesses the knowledge, skills and abilities needed to perform the critical functions of an Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative. For more information about the permissible activities of an Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative, please see FINRA Rule 1220(b), which is viewable in the FINRA Rule Manual through the following web link: www.finra.org.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS
The candidate must be associated with and sponsored by a FINRA member firm to be eligible to take the Series 6 Examination. There is no prerequisite requirement for this examination. For more information on eligibility requirements, please see FINRA Rule 1220(b), which can be viewed in the FINRA Rule Manual through the following web link: www.finra.org

APPLICATION PROCEDURES
The FINRA member firm that sponsors the applicant must file a Uniform Application for Securities Industry Registration or Transfer (Form U4) in the Central Registration Depository (CRD®) and request the Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative position on the Form U4.

STRUCTURE OF THE EXAM
The exam consists of 100 multiple-choice items, which are distributed among the four major content areas listed in the table below.

DEVELOPMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF THE CONTENT OUTLINE AND EXAM

The Series 6 content outline was developed based on the results of a job analysis study of Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representatives. The job analysis process included collecting data about the job functions, tasks and required knowledge of Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representatives from a wide variety of firms using numerous data collection techniques.

To ensure and sustain the job relevance of the examination, under the guidance of FINRA staff, a committee of industry representatives (Committee) writes, reviews and validates all exam items. Exam items are subjected to multiple reviews prior to inclusion on the exam and each item is linked directly to a component of the content outline. Exam items vary in difficulty and complexity. Each item will have only one correct or best answer.

The bank of items changes constantly as a result of amendments to, or the introduction of, government and self-regulatory organization (SRO) rules and regulations, changes in industry practice and the introduction of new products. It is the candidate’s responsibility to keep abreast of such changes when preparing to take the exam. Exam items and their statistical performance are analyzed routinely by FINRA staff and the Committee to ensure that test items continue to be relevant to the functions of Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representatives. Exam items are updated when necessary to reflect current industry practices and government and SRO rules and regulations. Candidates are responsible for keeping abreast of changes made to the applicable rules and regulations, as the exam is updated when new rules are introduced and when the rules are amended.
THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE EXAM

The exam is administered via computer. A tutorial on how to take the examination via computer is provided prior to taking the exam. Each candidate’s exam includes 5 additional, unidentified pretest items that do not contribute toward the candidate's score. The 5 items are randomly distributed throughout the exam. Therefore, each candidate’s exam consists of a total of 105 items (100 scored and 5 unscored). There is no penalty for guessing. Therefore, candidates should attempt to answer all items. Candidates will be allowed 135 minutes to complete the exam.

The test administrator will provide white boards/dry erase markers and basic electronic calculators to candidates, who must return these materials to the test center administrator at the end of the testing session. Some exam items involve calculations. Only calculators provided by the test center administrators are allowed for use during the examination.

Candidates will not be permitted to bring any reference material to their testing session. Severe penalties are imposed on candidates who cheat or attempt to cheat on FINRA-administered exam.

HOW THE EXAM IS SCORED

Following a well-established process known as standard setting, FINRA determines the passing score for the exam based on a number of factors including industry trends, historical exam performance and evaluations of the content difficulty by a committee of industry professionals with the designated registration. For the Series 6 exam, the passing score is 70%. This passing score reflects the competency needed to hold the designated registration.

EQUATING OF TEST SCORES

All candidate test scores have been placed on a common scale using a statistical adjustment process known as equating. Equating scores to a common scale accounts for the slight variations in difficulty that may exist among the different sets of exam items that candidates receive. This allows for a fair comparison of scores and ensures that every candidate is held to the same passing standard regardless of which set of exam items he or she received.

SAMPLE ITEMS

The following sample items are included to provide an introduction to the basic formats of multiple-choice items used on the exam. The sample items do not reflect the difficulty level of actual exam items. Candidates who familiarize themselves with these formats may be able to improve their test-taking skills so that their performance on the exam will better reflect their knowledge of the areas tested.

Closed-Stem: The stem (the part that poses the question) is a complete sentence, and thus concludes with a question mark. The options (answer choices) may be complete or incomplete sentences.

Example: Which of the following mutual fund services must be offered continually to the mutual fund’s shareholders?
   (A) Issuing shares
   (B) Redeeming shares
   (C) Exchanging shares
   (D) Transferring ownership of shares

Open-Stem (Sentence Completion): The stem is an incomplete statement, and the options represent conclusions to the sentence.

Example: The major difference between a closed-end fund and an open-end fund is that the closed-end fund:
   (A) is unmanaged.
   (B) is not diversified.
   (C) does not have a sales charge.
   (D) does not redeem shares held by the investors

Except or Not: The "except" case is used when the task is to select the response option that is an exception to the principle or rule stated in the stem. If it is clearly more straightforward or less awkward to use "not," rather than "except," this is done. In either case, the stem may be open or closed.

Example: In the Investment Company Act of 1940, the term “management company” applies to all of the following except:
   (A) open-end companies.
   (B) closed-end companies.
   (C) unit investment trusts.
   (D) non-diversified companies.
REFERENCES

Listed below are government and SROs' websites that provide information about rules and other information that may be useful in preparing for the exam. In addition to information about rules, the SROs may publish glossaries of terms, explanations of securities products, and compliance procedures. Candidates are encouraged to refer to the SROs' websites for information memos or regulatory notices concerning amendments to rules and the announcement of new rules that may be pertinent to the exam. Copies of federal securities laws and SEC rules may be purchased through the network of federal government printing offices. However, some of this information may be available on the SROs' and pertinent federal government's (e.g., the SEC) websites. It is recommended that candidates refer to the content outline as part of their preparation to take the exam. Candidates are responsible for planning their course of study in preparation for the exam. FINRA produces only the content outline and is not involved with, nor does it endorse, any particular course of study.
