NO. 2015045384601

TO: Department of Enforcement
Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA")

RE: Robert Myers, Respondent
CRD No. 1744374

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216 of FINRA's Code of Procedure, Robert Myers (the "Respondent") submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent ("AWC") for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against Respondent alleging violations based on the same factual findings described herein.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. Respondent hereby accepts and consents, without admitting or denying the findings, and solely for the purposes of this proceeding and any other proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of the following findings by FINRA:

BACKGROUND

Respondent first entered the securities industry in 1987, when he associated with a FINRA member firm and became registered as a General Securities Representative ("GSR"). Thereafter, Respondent associated with another FINRA member firm where he was registered as a GSR. From November 2008 to December 2008, Respondent associated with MML Investors Services, LLC (the "Firm"), where he was registered as a GSR. Subsequently, he associated with another FINRA member firm where he was registered as a GSR. From July 2009 to May 2015, Respondent once again associated with the Firm, where he was registered as a GSR. The conduct described below occurred at this time. Since May 2015, Respondent has not been associated with a FINRA member firm. However, Respondent remains subject to FINRA's jurisdiction pursuant to Article V, Section 4 of FINRA's By-Laws.

Respondent does not have any disciplinary history.

OVERVIEW

From 2011 to 2014, while associated with the Firm, Respondent received compensation for an outside business activity that was not disclosed to his employing firm, in violation of FINRA Rules 3270 and 2010.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

FINRA Rule 3270 prohibits a registered person from accepting compensation from any other person as a result of any business activity outside the scope of his relationship with his employer firm, unless he has provided prior written notice to the firm.

In 2011, Respondent entered into an oral agreement with customer EC to provide quarterly reviews of her accounts and receive advisory fees. Pursuant to that agreement, from 2011 to 2014, EC paid Respondent approximately $57,575 for advice that she received from 2011 to 2014.

During this time, the Firm required its registered representatives to provide written disclosure of all outside business activities to the Firm and receive approval by the Firm prior to engaging in the outside business activity. Respondent's agreement with EC was outside the scope of his relationship with his Firm, and therefore required notification to, and approval from the Firm, both of which he failed to do.

As a result of the foregoing conduct, Respondent violated FINRA Rule 3270 and FINRA Rule 2010.

B. Respondent also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

- A one-year (1) suspension from associating with any FINRA member in any capacity; and
- A $20,000 fine.

The fine shall be due and payable either immediately upon reassociation with a member firm following the one-year (1) suspension noted above, or prior to any application or request for relief from any statutory disqualification resulting from this or any other event or proceeding, whichever is earlier.

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that he is unable to pay, now or at any time hereafter, the monetary sanction imposed in this matter.

Respondent understands that if he is barred or suspended from associating with any FINRA member, he becomes subject to a statutory disqualification as that term is defined in Article III, Section 4 of FINRA's By-Laws, incorporating Section 3(a)(39) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Accordingly, Respondent may not be associated with any FINRA member in any capacity, including clerical or ministerial functions, during the period of the bar or suspension (see FINRA Rules 8310 and 8311).

The sanctions imposed herein shall be effective on a date set by FINRA staff.

II.

WAIVER OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives the following rights granted under FINRA's Code of Procedure:

- A. To have a Complaint issued specifying the allegations against Respondent;
- B. To be notified of the Complaint and have the opportunity to answer the allegations in writing;
- C. To defend against the allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a hearing panel, to have a written record of the hearing made and to have a written decision issued; and
- D. To appeal any such decision to the National Adjudicatory Council ("NAC") and then to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a U.S. Court of Appeals.

Further, Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the Chief Legal Officer, the NAC, or any member of the NAC, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including acceptance or rejection of this AWC.

Respondent further specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that a person violated the ex parte prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9143 or the separation of functions prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9144, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

III.

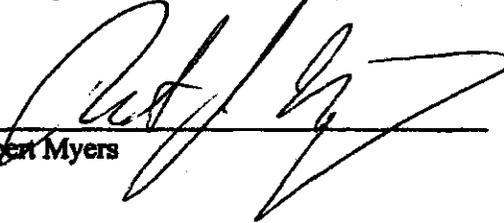

OTHER MATTERS

Respondent understands that:

- A. Submission of this AWC is voluntary and will not resolve this matter unless and until it has been reviewed and accepted by the NAC, a Review Subcommittee of the NAC, or the Office of Disciplinary Affairs ("ODA"), pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216;
- B. If this AWC is not accepted, its submission will not be used as evidence to prove any of the allegations against Respondent; and
- C. If accepted:
 - 1. this AWC will become part of Respondent's permanent disciplinary record and may be considered in any future actions brought by FINRA or any other regulator against Respondent;
 - 2. this AWC will be made available through FINRA's public disclosure program in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313;
 - 3. FINRA may make a public announcement concerning this agreement and the subject matter thereof in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313; and
 - 4. Respondent may not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement, including in regulatory filings or otherwise, denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this AWC or create the impression that the AWC is without factual basis. Respondent may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this AWC. Nothing in this provision affects Respondent's: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which FINRA is not a party.
- D. Respondent may attach a Corrective Action Statement to this AWC that is a statement of demonstrable corrective steps taken to prevent future misconduct. Respondent understands that he may not deny the charges or make any statement that is inconsistent with the AWC in this Statement. This Statement does not constitute factual or legal findings by FINRA, nor does it reflect the views of FINRA or its staff.

Respondent certifies that he has read and understands all of the provisions of this AWC and have been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that Respondent has agreed to its provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth herein and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a Complaint, has been made to induce Respondent to submit it.
