

Good morning Chip,

I read the notice that came out yesterday. I expected there would be a link for comment but I didn't find one.

If there had been one my comment would have been, 1) I see FINRA objective is to protect the investing public from fraud and 2) help the members to comply with the rules that enable FINRA to protect investors from fraud.

In my opinion everything else is a diversion.

Dock D Treece

Treece Investment Advisory Corp