

I object to FINRA. It is unnecessary and the government already has their nose too far under my tent. We are NOT your subjects, we are NOT witless beings, we ARE capable of managing our own affairs without your intervention. It seems that everything government touches doesn't work, costs too much and has no real benefit to "We the People". If this is enacted, it will be just another means for government to again invade our privacy.

David B. Paul
454 Primrose Dr.
Upper Gwynedd, PA 17466