SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-50176; File No. SR-NASD-2004-065]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; Order Approving Proposed Rule Change Regarding the Nasdaq Closing Cross

August 10, 2004.

On April 19, 2004, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD"), through its subsidiary, The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. ("Nasdaq"), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² a proposed rule change to amend the Nasdaq Closing Cross. The proposed rule change was published for comment in the Federal Register on June 4, 2004.³ The Commission received no comments on the proposal. This order approves the proposed rule change.

The proposed rule change would amend NASD Rule 4709 to permit market participants to cancel Imbalance Only orders ("IOs"), Market on Close orders ("MOC"), or Limit on Close orders ("LOC") between 3:50 p.m. EST and 3:55 p.m. EST where a firm is able to clearly demonstrate a legitimate error, including in the side, size, symbol, price, or duplication of the order. Market participants would not be permitted to cancel IO, MOC, or LOC orders after 3:55 p.m. EST for any reason.

The Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities association.⁴ The Commission believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 15A(b) of the Act,⁵ in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 15A(b)(6),⁶ in particular, in that it is designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and in general, to protect investors and the public interest. The proposed rule change will allow Nasdaq greater flexibility to correct errors prior to the Nasdaq Closing Cross, which should result in a Nasdaq Closing Cross that more accurately reflects the trading in a particular security at the close.

For the foregoing reasons, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and rules and regulations thereunder.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,⁷ that the proposed rule change (SR-NASD-2004-065) is approved.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, NASD included statements concerning the purpose of and statutory basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. NASD has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

NASD is proposing to delete IM-2210-4(b) and Rule 3420 because NASD has determined that the provisions of IM-2210-4(b) and Rule 3420 are no longer applicable and, therefore, should be deleted as obsolete.

a. NASD IM-2210-4(b)

IM-2210-4(b) provides that, upon request to NASD, a member may receive an appropriate certification of membership. NASD represents that it no longer issues such certifications. NASD, therefore, proposes deleting IM-2210-4(b) as obsolete and amending IM-2210-4 to reflect subparagraph (a) as its only text.

b. NASD Rule 3420

On June 27, 2000, NASD adopted Rule 3420 (Mandatory Decimal Pricing Testing).⁵ Rule 3420, among other things, requires NASD clearing firms and market makers to conduct or participate in the securities industry's decimalization pricing tests of computer systems. NASD required such testing in compliance with the Commission's order for certain securities industry participants to develop plans for conversion to decimal pricing.⁶ NASD intended the testing to ascertain the decimal pricing conversion compatibility of its members' computer systems, and wanted to ensure that conversion to decimal pricing would occur successfully with minimal disruption of the markets and minimal impact on investors. Since the conversion to decimal pricing has occurred, NASD represents that it no longer requires its members to test their computer systems for any such decimal pricing conversion; therefore, NASD is proposing to delete Rule 3420 as obsolete.

In connection with the deletion of Rule 3420, NASD is also proposing to delete the heading in the NASD Manual to the Rule 3400 Series (Computer Systems). NASD represents that, upon the deletion of Rule 3420, the heading for the Rule 3400 Series will no longer be necessary since Rule 3420 is the only rule in the series.

NASD represents that it will announce the rule change in a Notice to Members to be published no later than 30 days following the publication of this notice in the Federal Register.

2. Statutory Basis

NASD believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A of the Act,⁷ in general, and with Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act,⁸ in particular, in that the proposed rule change is designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.

B Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of Burden on Competition

NASD does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments on the proposed rule change were neither solicited nor received.

⁶ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 42360 (January 28, 2000), 65 FR 5003 (February 2, 2000).

⁸ 15 U.S.C. 78o-3(b)(6).

³ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(iii).

⁵ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 43003 (June 30, 2000), 65 FR 43067 (July 12, 2000) (SR-NASD-2000-40).

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

NASD has designated the proposed rule change as "non-controversial" and a rule change that: (1) Does not significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (2) does not impose any significant burden on competition; and (3) by its terms, does not become operative for 30 days after the date of this filing, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate if consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. Therefore, the foregoing rule change has become effective upon filing pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act⁹ and Rule 19b-4(f)(6)¹⁰ thereunder.

Under Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii), a proposed "non-controversial" rule change does not become operative for 30 days after the date of filing, unless the Commission designates a shorter time. NASD has requested that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay so that the proposed rule change will become immediately effective upon filing, since the provisions of IM-2210-4(b) and Rule 3420 are obsolete and no longer applicable. The Commission hereby waives the 30-day operative delay and believes such waiver is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest.¹¹ The Commission notes that the relevant provisions of IM-2210-4(b) and Rule 3420 are obsolete and no longer applicable. Accelerating the operative date will allow the NASD to immediately reflect the currently applicable rules in the NASD Manual.

In addition, Rule 19b-4(f)(6) requires the self-regulatory organization to give the Commission written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change, along with a brief description and text of the proposed rule change, at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. NASD complied with this requirement.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of such proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.¹²

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of NASD.
