

investors and the public interest, the proposed rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act⁷ and subparagraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.⁸

Nasdaq has requested that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay period for “non-controversial” proposals and make the proposed rule change effective and operative upon filing. The Commission believes that waiver of the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest, because the proposed rule change is intended to protect the integrity of the Nasdaq market by reducing the incidence of the submission of grossly mis-priced orders into the market. For this reason, the Commission designates the proposal to be effective and operative upon filing with the Commission.⁹

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in the furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments

- Use the Commission’s Internet comment form (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or
- Send an e-mail to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File Number SR–NASD–2006–019 on the subject line.

Paper Comments

- Send paper comments in triplicate to Nancy M. Morris, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE., Washington, DC 20549–1090.

All submissions should refer to File Number SR–NASD–2006–019. This file number should be included on the subject line if e-mail is used. To help the Commission process and review your comments more efficiently, please use only one method. The Commission will post all comments on the Commission’s Internet Web site (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>). Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission’s Public Reference Room. Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the NASD. All comments received will be posted without change; the Commission does not edit personal identifying information from submissions. You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly. All submissions should refer to File Number SR–NASD–2006–019 and should be submitted on or before March 3, 2006.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.¹⁰

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34–53224; File No. SR–NASD–2005–112]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; Order Approving Proposed Rule Change Relating to Amendments to Rule 3360 To Expand Short Interest Reporting to OTC Equity Securities

February 3, 2006.

I. Introduction

On September 20, 2005, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (“NASD”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission” or “SEC”), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² a proposed rule change to amend NASD Rule 3360 to expand short interest reporting requirements to over-the-counter (“OTC”) equity securities.³ The proposed rule change was published for comment in the Federal Register on November 3, 2005.⁴ The Commission received seven comment letters on the proposal.⁵ The NASD filed a response to the comment letters on January 20, 2006.⁶ This order approves the proposed rule change.

II. Description of the Proposal

The proposal would amend Rule 3360, Short-Interest Reporting, to require that members maintain and report on a monthly basis total short positions in OTC equity securities in all customer and proprietary firm accounts.⁷ Currently, Rule 3360(a) requires members to maintain a record of total short positions⁸ in all customer and proprietary firm accounts in Nasdaq securities (and listed securities if not reported to another self-regulatory organization (“SRO”)) and requires members to report such information to the NASD on a monthly basis. The NASD believes that expanding the monthly short interest reporting requirements to OTC equity securities will increase the information available to public investors and other interested parties related to trading in OTC equity securities. Accordingly, the NASD

³ The term “OTC equity securities” means any equity securities that are neither included in the Nasdaq Stock Market nor traded on a national securities exchange.

⁷ Non-self-clearing broker-dealers generally are considered to have satisfied their reporting requirement by making appropriate arrangements with their respective clearing organizations. See NASD Notice to Members 03–08 (Jan. 2003).

proposes to amend Rule 3360(a) to require that members maintain and report to the NASD short sale positions for OTC equity securities. For purposes of the proposed rule change, OTC equity securities would be defined as any equity security that is not listed on The Nasdaq Stock Market or a national securities exchange.

The NASD will announce the effective date of the proposed rule change in a Notice to Members to be published no later than 60 days following Commission approval. In the proposed rule change, the NASD stated that in recognition of the technological and systems changes the proposed rule change may require, the effective date for the proposed rule change will be 90 days following publication of the NASD's Notice to Members announcing Commission approval.⁹

In the Proposing Release,¹⁰ the Commission specifically requested comment regarding whether the implementation period for the proposed rule change could be shorter.¹¹ The Commission did not receive any comments regarding this specific request for comment. Thus, the Commission has determined not to request that the NASD shorten the implementation period.

III. Summary of Comments

The Commission received seven comment letters on the proposal.¹² The commenters generally supported the proposal. Some commenters, however, recommended additional changes to the proposed rule and to other rules relating to short selling. The following is a summary of the major concerns the commenters raised.

Two commenters questioned the exceptions to the short interest reporting requirements contained in current Rule 3360 and in the proposed rule change.¹³ Both current Rule 3360 and the proposed rule change provide that NASD members must report short interest positions that result from "short sales," as that term is defined in Rule 200 of Regulation SHO,¹⁴ with the exception of positions that meet the requirements of subsections (e)(1), (6), (7), (8) and (10) of Rule 10a-1 under the Act.¹⁵

The commenters recommended that the exceptions be eliminated from the proposed rule change and all short interest positions be reported and publicly disseminated.¹⁶ One commenter argued that all short interest positions should be disclosed to the investing public so that investors have an understanding of exactly how much supply is actually in the system because the short interest position affects the overall valuation of a security.¹⁷

One commenter proposed amendments to Rule 3360 that would require issuers to cause their transfer agents to report long and short interest positions to the NASD at the close of each trading day.¹⁸ This commenter's recommendation would also require transfer agents on behalf of issuers to report certain share information to the NASD at the close of each trading day, such as authorized shares, total shares outstanding, and shares held in street name.¹⁹

Some commenters asserted that further action in the short selling area is necessary, in particular to address naked short selling abuses and what they believe to be certain loopholes in Regulation SHO.²⁰ Other commenters raised concerns regarding hedge fund regulation, the National Securities Clearing Corporation's Continuous Net Settlement System and the Depository of Rule 10a-1 contains exceptions to the price test restrictions. The exceptions in Rule 10a-1(e) were designed to permit certain types of trading activities that were intended to benefit the markets or that were believed to carry little risk of the kind of manipulative or destabilizing trading that the rule was designed to address. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 48709 (Oct. 28, 2003), 68 FR 62972 (Nov. 6, 2003). Subsection (e)(1) of Rule 10a-1 permits short sales to be effected without regard to the price test restrictions in the rule if the seller owns the security sold and intends to deliver such security as soon as possible without undue inconvenience or expense. See 17 CFR 240.10a-1(e)(1). Subsection (e)(6) of Rule 10a-1 contains an exception for certain sales of a security effected with the approval of an exchange which are necessary to equalize the price of such security with the current price of such security on another national securities exchange, which is the principal exchange market. See 17 CFR 240.10a-1(e)(6). Subsection (e)(7) of Rule 10a-1 contains an exception for certain bona fide domestic arbitrage transactions. See 17 CFR 240.10a-1(e)(7). Subsection (e)(8) of Rule 10a-1 contains an exception for certain international domestic arbitrage transactions. See 17 CFR 240.10a-1(e)(8). Subsection (e)(10) of Rule 10a-1 generally excepts sales of securities by underwriters or syndicate members participating in a distribution in connection with an over-allotment, and any lay-off sales by such a person in connection with a distribution of securities through rights or a standby underwriting commitment. IV. NASD's Response

In its response letter,²² the NASD stated that it believed that all the comments were outside the scope of its rule filing because the proposed rule change is limited to expanding the current short interest reporting requirements to OTC equity securities.²³ The NASD stated in its letter that because the changes recommended by the commenters were not germane to the proposal, were beyond the purview of the NASD, or related to amendments to another SRO's rules or SEC rules, the NASD was not responding to those recommendations specifically in its response letter.²⁴ In addition, the NASD stated that it would review and analyze these recommendations in the same manner in which it would consider any requests for rulemaking, and, based on such review and analysis, would determine whether further action on these recommendations is appropriate.²⁵

With respect to comments regarding the exceptions to short interest reporting contained in current NASD Rule 3360 and the proposed rule change, the Commission urges the NASD to conduct an in-depth review of the exceptions to short interest reporting to determine whether future rulemaking regarding the exceptions is appropriate.

V. Discussion and Commission Findings

The Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities exchange and, in particular, the requirements of Section 15A of the Act²⁶ and the rules and regulations thereunder. Specifically, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act,²⁷ which requires, among other things, that the NASD's rules be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, remove impediments to a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.²⁸

The Commission believes that expanding short interest reporting to OTC equity securities will protect investors and the public interest by requiring NASD members to increase the information available to investors and other interested parties related to trading in OTC equity securities.

VI. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,²⁹ that the proposed rule change (SR-NASD-2005-112) be, and it hereby is, approved.

immediately upon filing. The Commission is publishing this notice, as amended, to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

This filing amends NYSE Rule 36 to permit Registered Competitive Market Makers ("RCMMs"), as defined in NYSE Rule 107A, to use Exchange authorized and provided portable phones and consists of proposed member education bulletins which describe the conditions under which Floor brokers and RCMMs may use such phones pursuant to the Exchange's portable phone pilot ("Pilot"). The conditions under which a Floor broker and a RCMM may use a portable phone pursuant to the Pilot are proposed as NYSE Rules 36.21 and 36.22.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose Background

The Commission approved implementation of the Exchange's amendment to NYSE Rule 36 allowing Floor brokers to use Exchange authorized and provided portable phones on the Exchange Floor as a six-month pilot⁶ beginning no later than June 23, 2003.⁷ Since the inception of the Pilot, the Exchange has extended the Pilot five times, with the current Pilot expiring on January 31, 2006.⁸ In addition, the Exchange filed for permanent approval of this rule.⁹ The Exchange represents that no administrative or technical problems, other than routine telephone maintenance issues, have resulted from the Pilot over the past few months.¹⁰

⁶ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 47671 (April 11, 2003), 68 FR 19048 (April 17, 2003) (SR-NYSE-2002-11) ("Original Order").

⁷ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 47992 (June 5, 2003), 68 FR 35047 (June 11, 2003) (SR-NYSE-2003-19) (delaying the implementation date for portable phones from on or about May 1, 2003 to no later than June 23, 2003).

⁸ See Securities Exchange Act Release Nos. 48919 (December 12, 2003), 68 FR 70853 (December 19, 2003) (SR-NYSE-2003-38) (extending the Pilot for an additional six months ending on June 16, 2004);

NYSE Rule 36

NYSE Rule 36 (Communications Between Exchange and Members' Offices) governs the establishment of telephone or electronic communications between the Exchange Floor and any other location. Today, NYSE Rule 36.20 permits a Floor broker to use an Exchange authorized and provided portable telephone on the Exchange Floor. NYSE Rule 36.20 does not apply to specialists who are prohibited under this rule from communicating with off-Floor locations from the Exchange Floor.¹¹

Currently, under the Pilot, with the approval of the Exchange, a Floor broker is permitted to engage in direct voice communication from the point of sale to an off-Floor location, such as a member firm's trading desk or the office of one of the Floor broker's customers.¹² Such ⁹ See SR-NYSE-2004-52, pending with the Commission.

¹⁰ The Exchange notes that it began receiving records of incoming telephone calls in June 2005 and will continue to receive monthly updates. With respect to regulatory actions concerning the Pilot, there is an open investigation into possible insider trading in an NYSE listed security in which the trading activity of two RCMMs has been identified and is under review. With respect to one of these RCMMs, the use by the RCMM of an Exchange authorized and provided portable phone in or about January 2005 is under review as part of the investigation. Telephone conversation between Jeff Rosenstock, Senior Special Counsel, NYSE, and Molly M. Kim, Attorney, Division of Market Regulation, Commission, on January 27, 2006.

¹² Floor brokers receiving orders from the public over portable phones must be properly qualified to engage in such direct access business under NYSE
