

For those who have been unjustly tarred by un-valid complaints and wish to clear our names, I'm disgusted that FINRA has chosen to increase the fee and to do so by over a thousand dollars. The fee by FINRA as it exists, is already 1500 dollars per complaint. That alone is extortion, but to raise that fee any further is unconscionable. It's behavior expected of loan sharks. There are many Financial advisors who are targeted by bad actors for a number of reasons. We need a fair and reasonable system to clear our names. At one point ,FINRA used to remove complaints that were unfounded. Staining someone's name forever by forcing them to pay extortion and go to court is a cheesy way to collect income from people who are already victims. Thanks FINRA. Now we can be victimized twice.
