

I encourage FINRA to adopt the language set forth in Regulatory Notice 18-22. Amending the Discovery Guide along these lines will make it easier for aggrieved investors to recover their losses in circumstances where an Award by an arbitration panel has been given and the brokerage firm goes out of business, never paying the award. This is a step in the right direction for investor protection.

Jim Sigler

818-577-8109