

Hi, I appreciate what the intent of the rule is, however this rule would put a lot of elderly people who have one without any ways to distribute there estate. I had one person have their handyman as the trustee,Why??? Because she can't have her advisor as the trustee??? the money is going to non-profits. I believe this rule would be irresponsible on firna behalf.