In recent years, senior investors have increasingly been victims of investor scams. During this session, panelists highlight emerging trends in investor scams used to defraud older investors, provide tips to identify potential "red flags" and discuss who to contact if a fraudulent scheme is suspected.

Moderator:
- Gerri Walsh, FINRA Office of Investor Education

Panelists:
- Gary Mottola, FINRA Investor Education Foundation
- Patricia Boyle, Rush Alzheimer's Disease Center
- E. Elizabeth (Liz) Loewy, EverSafe

Panelists explore the evolving regulatory structure surrounding senior investor protections and the challenges facing regulators and financial services professionals when developing an effective, efficient and integrated protection framework.

Moderator:
- Sarah Gill, FINRA Office of Government Affairs

Panelists:
- Joseph (Joey) Brady, North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA)
- Lourdes Gonzalez, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC)
- Erin Linehan, Raymond James Financial, Inc.
- James (Jim) Wrona, FINRA Office of General Counsel

Paul Greenwood
Elder Abuse Expert Witness, Teacher and Consultant

Newly retired Deputy District Attorney Paul Greenwood was a lawyer in England for 13 years. After relocating to San Diego in 1991 he passed the California Bar and joined the DA’s office in 1993. For twenty two years Paul headed up the Elder Abuse Prosecution Unit at the San Diego DA’s Office. In 1999 California Lawyer magazine named Paul as one of their top 20 lawyers of the year in recognition of his pioneering efforts to pursue justice on behalf of senior citizens. He has prosecuted over 750 felony cases of both physical and financial elder abuse. He has also prosecuted ten murder cases, including one death penalty case. In March 2018 Paul retired from the San Diego DA’s office to concentrate on sharing lessons learned from his elder abuse prosecutions with a wider audience. In October 2018 he was given a lifetime achievement award by his former office. Paul now spends much of his post retirement time consulting on elder abuse cases and providing trainings to law enforcement and Adult Protective Services agencies across the country and internationally. He is also involved as the criminal justice board member of National Adult Protective Services Association.
