   (b) Not applicable.

   (c) Not applicable.

2. Procedures of the Self-Regulatory Organization

   The Chief Legal Officer of FINRA authorized the filing of the proposed rule change with the SEC pursuant to delegated authority. No other action by FINRA is necessary for the filing of the proposed rule change.

   FINRA has filed the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness and has requested that the SEC waive the requirement that the proposed rule change not become operative for 30 days after the date of the filing so that FINRA can implement the proposed rule change immediately.\(^2\)

3. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

   (a) Purpose

   On May 8, 2020, FINRA filed with the Commission a proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness, SR-FINRA-2020-015, to temporarily amend some timing, method of service and other procedural requirements in FINRA rules during the period in which FINRA’s operations are impacted by the outbreak of COVID-19. Those temporary amendments set forth in SR-FINRA-2020-015 are in effect through June 15, 2020.\(^3\) The Commission published its notice of filing and immediate effectiveness for SR-FINRA-2020-015 on May 20, 2020.\(^4\)

   FINRA proposed the temporary amendments set forth in SR-FINRA-2020-015 to address the substantial impacts of the COVID-19 outbreak on FINRA’s operations. Among other things, the need for FINRA staff, with limited exceptions, to work remotely and restrict in-person activities – consistent with the recommendations of public health officials – makes it challenging to meet certain procedural requirements and perform certain functions required under FINRA rules. The proposed rule change addressed these concerns by easing logistical and other issues and providing FINRA with needed flexibility for its operations during the COVID-19 outbreak.

\(^3\) As noted in SR-FINRA-2020-015, the temporarily amended FINRA rules will revert back to their current state at the conclusion of the temporary relief period, now July 31, 2020, and any extension thereof.

The COVID-19 conditions necessitating the temporary amendments in SR-FINRA-2020-015 persist and FINRA continues to face the same logistical and other challenges. For this reason and the reasons stated in SR-FINRA-2020-15, FINRA now proposes to extend the effective date of the temporary rule amendments in SR-FINRA-2020-015 through July 31, 2020.\(^5\) The extension of these temporary amendments will continue to help minimize the impact of the COVID-19 outbreak on FINRA’s operations, allowing FINRA to continue critical adjudicatory and review processes in a reasonable and fair manner and meet its critical investor protection goals, while also following best practices with respect to the health and safety of its staff.

As noted in Item 2 of this filing, FINRA has filed the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness and has requested that the SEC waive the requirement that the proposed rule change not become operative for 30 days after the date of the filing, so FINRA can implement the proposed rule change immediately.

(b) Statutory Basis

FINRA believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act,\(^6\) which requires, among other things, that FINRA rules must be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. FINRA believes that the proposed rule change is also consistent with Section

\(^5\) FINRA is monitoring the impact of COVID-19 on its operations. If the temporary relief from the rule requirements identified in SR-FINRA-2020-015 is necessary beyond July 31, 2020, FINRA will submit a separate rule filing to extend the effectiveness of the temporary relief under those rules.

15A(b)(8) of the Act,\(^7\) which requires, among other things, that FINRA rules provide a fair procedure for the disciplining of members and persons associated with members.

The proposed rule change to extend the effective date of the temporary amendments to FINRA rules set forth in SR-FINRA-2020-015 to July 31, 2020, will continue to provide FINRA, and in some cases another party to a proceeding, temporary modifications to its procedural requirements in order to allow FINRA to maintain fair processes and protect investors while operating in a remote work environment and with corresponding restrictions on its activities. It is in the public interest, and consistent with the Act’s purpose, for FINRA to operate pursuant to this temporary relief. The temporary amendments allow FINRA to specify filing and service methods, extend certain time periods, and modify the format of oral argument for FINRA disciplinary and eligibility proceedings and other review processes in order to cope with the current pandemic conditions. In addition, as set forth in SR-FINRA-2020-015, extending this temporary relief will further support FINRA’s disciplinary and eligibility proceedings and other review processes that serve a critical role in providing investor protection and maintaining fair and orderly markets.

4. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

FINRA does not believe that the temporary proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. FINRA believes that the proposed rule change, which extends the effectiveness of the temporary rule amendments in SR-FINRA-2020-015 to July 31,

\(^7\) 15 U.S.C. 78q-3(b)(8).
2020, would prevent unnecessary impediments to FINRA’s operations and FINRA’s investor protection goals that would otherwise result if the amendments in SR-FINRA-2020-15 expire on June 15, 2020. FINRA does not believe that the proposed rule change will have any material negative effect on members and will not impose any new costs.

5. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

6. Extension of Time Period for Commission Action

Not applicable.

7. Basis for Summary Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(3) or for Accelerated Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) or Section 19(b)(7)(D)

The proposed rule change is effective upon filing pursuant to Section 19(b)(3) of the Act\(^8\) and paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder,\(^9\) in that the proposed rule change does not significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; does not impose any significant burden on competition; and does not become operative for 30 days after filing or such shorter time as the Commission may designate.

FINRA requests that the Commission waive the requirement that the rule change, by its terms, not become operative for 30 days after the date of the filing as set forth in Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii),\(^10\) so that the proposed rule change may become operative immediately. Waiver of the operative delay would allow the proposed changes, which are designed to minimize disruptions to FINRA’s operations in order to maintain fair processes and continue to meet its investor protection goals, to be in effect on the date of filing. In accordance with Rule 19b-4(f)(6), FINRA submitted written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change, along with a brief description and text of the proposed rule change, at least five business days prior to the date of filing, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, as specified in Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii) under the Act.12

8. Proposed Rule Change Based on Rules of Another Self-Regulatory Organization or of the Commission

Not applicable.

9. Security-Based Swap Submissions Filed Pursuant to Section 3C of the Act

Not applicable.

10. Advance Notices Filed Pursuant to Section 806(e) of the Payment, Clearing and Settlement Supervision Act

Not applicable.

11. Exhibits

Exhibit 1. Completed notice of proposed rule change for publication in the Federal Register.

The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

The text of the proposed rule change is available on FINRA’s website at http://www.finra.org, at the principal office of FINRA and at the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, FINRA included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. FINRA has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

4 As noted in SR-FINRA-2020-015, the temporarily amended FINRA rules will revert back to their current state at the conclusion of the temporary relief period, now July 31, 2020, and any extension thereof.

FINRA proposed the temporary amendments set forth in SR-FINRA-2020-015 to address the substantial impacts of the COVID-19 outbreak on FINRA’s operations. Among other things, the need for FINRA staff, with limited exceptions, to work remotely and restrict in-person activities – consistent with the recommendations of public health officials – makes it challenging to meet certain procedural requirements and perform certain functions required under FINRA rules. The proposed rule change addressed these concerns by easing logistical and other issues and providing FINRA with needed flexibility for its operations during the COVID-19 outbreak.

The COVID-19 conditions necessitating the temporary amendments in SR-FINRA-2020-015 persist and FINRA continues to face the same logistical and other challenges. For this reason and the reasons stated in SR-FINRA-2020-15, FINRA now proposes to extend the effective date of the temporary rule amendments in SR-FINRA-2020-015 through July 31, 2020. The extension of these temporary amendments will continue to help minimize the impact of the COVID-19 outbreak on FINRA’s operations, allowing FINRA to continue critical adjudicatory and review processes in a reasonable and fair manner and meet its critical investor protection goals, while also following best practices with respect to the health and safety of its staff.

FINRA has filed the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness and has requested that the SEC waive the requirement that the proposed rule change not become operative for 30 days after the date of the filing, so FINRA can implement the proposed rule change immediately.

FINRA is monitoring the impact of COVID-19 on its operations. If the temporary relief from the rule requirements identified in SR-FINRA-2020-015 is necessary beyond July 31, 2020, FINRA will submit a separate rule filing to extend the effectiveness of the temporary relief under those rules.
2. Statutory Basis

FINRA believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act,\(^7\) which requires, among other things, that FINRA rules must be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. FINRA believes that the proposed rule change is also consistent with Section 15A(b)(8) of the Act,\(^8\) which requires, among other things, that FINRA rules provide a fair procedure for the disciplining of members and persons associated with members.

The proposed rule change to extend the effective date of the temporary amendments to FINRA rules set forth in SR-FINRA-2020-015 to July 31, 2020, will continue to provide FINRA, and in some cases another party to a proceeding, temporary modifications to its procedural requirements in order to allow FINRA to maintain fair processes and protect investors while operating in a remote work environment and with corresponding restrictions on its activities. It is in the public interest, and consistent with the Act’s purpose, for FINRA to operate pursuant to this temporary relief. The temporary amendments allow FINRA to specify filing and service methods, extend certain time periods, and modify the format of oral argument for FINRA disciplinary and eligibility proceedings and other review processes in order to cope with the current pandemic conditions. In addition, as set forth in SR-FINRA-2020-015, extending this temporary relief will further support FINRA’s disciplinary and eligibility proceedings and other review processes that serve a critical role in providing investor protection and maintaining fair and orderly markets.

\(^8\) 15 U.S.C. 78q-3(b)(8).

B. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

FINRA does not believe that the temporary proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. FINRA believes that the proposed rule change, which extends the effectiveness of the temporary rule amendments in SR-FINRA-2020-015 to July 31, 2020, would prevent unnecessary impediments to FINRA’s operations and FINRA’s investor protection goals that would otherwise result if the amendments in SR-FINRA-2020-15 expire on June 15, 2020. FINRA does not believe that the proposed rule change will have any material negative effect on members and will not impose any new costs.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.10

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.
