Summary

To assist members in their financial reporting obligations, FINRA is issuing this Notice to provide the due dates for Annual Report, Financial and Operational Combined Uniform Single (FOCUS), Form Custody, and supplemental FOCUS Report filings that are due in 2022 or the first quarter of 2023.¹ FINRA reminds members that all such filings they submit to FINRA must be made electronically through FINRA Gateway.

The due dates set forth in this Notice are solely as to the filings that are specified in the Notice and are required under SEA Rule 17a-5 or FINRA Rule 4524. These due dates take into account the federal holiday calendar as appropriate.

Questions regarding this Notice should be directed to your firm's Risk Monitoring Analyst.

Background

Annual Report

Firms must submit their annual reports to FINRA in electronic form.² Pursuant to SEA Rule 17a-5(d)(6), firms must also file the report at the regional office of the SEC in which the firm has its principal place of business and the SEC's principal office in Washington, DC. FINRA reminds members that the SEC has a process for electronic filing of annual reports, in lieu of filing in paper form, which the SEC simplified and updated in January 2017.³

In February 2021, the SEC issued an order⁴ that permits specified firms an additional 30 calendar days to file their annual reports as required pursuant to SEA Rule 17a-5(d), subject to certain conditions. The SEC's order, in response to a request by FINRA, is designed to ease potential burdens that smaller members may face in obtaining audit services. Members that meet the conditions set forth in the SEC's order and wish to avail themselves of the 30-day extension must provide notification to FINRA as described further in Regulatory Notice 21-05.⁵

Rule 17a-5(d)(6) requires firms that are members of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) to file the annual report with SIPC. Through an agreement between SIPC and FINRA,⁶ when a firm that is a SIPC member files an annual report through FINRA Gateway, this will also constitute filing with SIPC. Members may consult the SIPC website for further information.

Filings are due no later than 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time (ET) on the due dates listed in this Notice.
