RE: Fifth Third Securities, Inc., Respondent
CRD No. 628

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216 of FINRA's Code of Procedure, Fifth Third Securities, Inc. ("Fifth Third" or the "Firm") submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent ("AWC") for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against Fifth Third alleging violations based on the same factual findings described herein.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. Respondent hereby accepts and consents, without admitting or denying the findings, and solely for the purposes of this proceeding and any other proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of the following findings by FINRA:

BACKGROUND

Fifth Third has been a FINRA member since 1939 and is headquartered in Cincinnati, Ohio. The Firm is a full-service brokerage firm with more than 1,500 registered personnel. Among other things, it provides sales, trading and underwriting services.

RELEVANT DISCIPLINARY HISTORY

Fifth Third has no relevant disciplinary history.

OVERVIEW

From May 1, 2009 to April 30, 2014 (the “Relevant Period”), Fifth Third failed to apply sales charge discounts to certain customers’ eligible purchases of unit investment trusts (“UITs”) in violation of FINRA Rule 2010. In addition, Fifth Third failed to establish, maintain and enforce a supervisory system and written supervisory procedures reasonably designed to ensure that customers received sales charge discounts on all eligible UIT purchases in violation of NASD Conduct Rule 3010 and FINRA Rule 2010.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

A UIT is a type of Investment Company that issues securities, typically called “units,” representing undivided interests in a relatively fixed portfolio of securities. UITs are generally issued by a sponsor that assembles the UIT’s portfolio of securities, deposits the securities in a trust, and sells units of the UIT in a public offering. UIT units are redeemable securities that are issued for a specific term, and entitle an investor to receive his or her proportionate share of the UIT’s net assets on redemption or at termination.

UIT sponsors offer investors a variety of ways to reduce the sales fee charged on a UIT purchase. The two most common methods to reduce the fee are “breakpoints,” which allow investors to reduce the sales fee by increasing the size of their UIT investments, and discounts on “rollovers” and “exchanges”¹ (collectively “sales charge discounts”).

On March 31, 2004, FINRA issued Notice to Members 04-26, Unit Investment Trust Sales, which reminded broker-dealers that they should develop and implement procedures to ensure customers receive available sales charge discounts for UITs. The Notice further stated that UIT transactions must take place “on the most advantageous terms available to the customer” and that it is the firm’s responsibility to “take appropriate steps to ensure that they and their employees understand, inform customers about, and apply correctly any applicable price breaks available to customers in connection with UITs.”

During the Relevant Period, Fifth Third failed to identify and apply sales charge discounts to certain customers’ eligible purchases of UITs. Specifically, Fifth Third failed to apply sales charge discounts to 5,107 eligible UIT purchases resulting in customers paying excessive sales charges of approximately

$663,534.23. Fifth Third has paid restitution to all affected customers. Based on the foregoing, Fifth Third violated FINRA Rule 2010.

Also during the Relevant Period, Fifth Third failed to establish, maintain and enforce a supervisory system and written supervisory procedures reasonably designed to ensure customers received sales charge discounts on all eligible UIT purchases. The Firm lacked written supervisory procedures regarding the identification of UIT transactions eligible for sales charge discounts. Additionally, the Firm relied primarily on its registered representatives to identify and apply sales charge discounts, yet the Firm had no system to ensure that the registered representatives did so.

Based on the foregoing, Fifth Third violated NASD Conduct Rules 3010(a) and (b) and FINRA Rule 2010.

B. Respondent consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

- Censure;
- A fine of $300,000; and
- Restitution to affected customers in the total amount of $663,534.23.

Respondent agrees to pay the monetary sanction upon notice that this AWC has been accepted and that such payment is due and payable. Respondent has submitted an Election of Payment form showing the method by which it proposes to pay the fine imposed.

A registered principal on behalf of Respondent shall submit satisfactory proof of payment of restitution or of reasonable and documented efforts undertaken to effect restitution. Such proof shall be submitted to M. Catherine Cottam 15200 Omega Drive, Rockville, Maryland, 20850, either by letter that identifies Fifth Third Securities, Inc., FINRA Matter No. 2014041677601, or by email from a work-related account of the registered principal of Respondent to EnforcementNotice@FINRA.org. This proof shall be provided to the FINRA staff member listed above no later than 120 days after acceptance of the AWC.

The imposition of a restitution order or any other monetary sanction herein, and the timing of such ordered payments, does not preclude customers from pursuing their own actions to obtain restitution or other remedies.

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that it is unable to pay, now or at any time hereafter, the monetary sanction imposed in this matter.

The sanctions imposed herein shall be effective on a date set by FINRA staff.

II.

The undersigned, on behalf of the Firm, certifies that a person duly authorized to act on its behalf has read and understands all of the provisions of this AWC and has been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that the Firm has agreed to its provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth herein and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a Complaint, has been made to induce the Firm to submit it.
