I believe that there is a huge and illicit act going on with the $AMC stock. I believe that $AMC at whatever the price is today, is worth more than the price actually shown. I believe that this is due to market manipulation in continuance with the sale of Naked Shorts being shorted into the market. If there is any action that can be done to reprimand these malicious acts it'd be greatly appreciated on behalf of the Ape Army. We are too people who dream of being financially stable at the least. Please speak up for us and act on our behalf! It's the American way... right?
