Please update the rules to reflect transparency! Hedge funds and banks are manipulating securities daily with impunity and hurting retail investors. It is sickening what is happening in the US stock markets, and the WHOLE world is watching it happen! We need transparency and honesty in reporting! Bigger fines for these crooks! A $100,000 fine is just “the cost of business” when you are making millions and/or billions by naked shorting a business to oblivion and never having to purchase the shares back, not paying Capital Gains taxes and never having to deal with millions of FTD’s!

Look no further than the two biggest cases- AMC & GME! Stop these career crooks before we have 2008 all over again!
