

I applaud the effort to streamline these recordkeeping rules and, in that spirit, request one thing to make these requirements MUCH easier to apply. The rule in part is based on the SEC record retention schedule, which is EXTREMELY difficult to find within the SEC rules. Could you please add the retention schedule, a direct link from the applicable FINRA rule to the SEC record retention schedule or indicate the most common retention time frames within the rule? I would cry with happiness if this could be accomplished!

Thank you for your time.
