

Particularly troubling is the proposal to expand "suitability obligations to all recommendations of investment products, services and strategies made in connection with a firm's business, regardless of whether the recommendations include securities.

Please leave the suitability requirements as they are. Expanding them to other products not related to securities is not needed.

Grover Kahl
G. T. Kahl Financial Services LLC
734-941-7310