

I generally agree with the creation of a registration category for Operations Professionals. You state that this is not a competency examination and go on to state that its purpose is to impress upon these persons that they are functioning in a regulated industry. My suggestion is that you either make it a competency examination or impress upon these individuals by a reminder that as associated persons (fingerprinted) they are subject to FINRA regulations and can be to sanctioned.

Brian Marcotte

Chief Compliance Officer
Johnson Rice & Company, L.L.C.
639 Loyola Avenue, Suite 2775
New Orleans, LA 70113
(504) 584-1229

bmarcotte@jrco.com