

Attn: Marcia E. Asquith

I prefer more severe punishment (E.G., lifetime bans, and way larger fines) for egregious and repeat offenders to an expansion of the gathering of my private information.

Also how do I know that my information (Like name & etc), and other identifying information will not be collected by FINRA, NSA or other large regulatory data bases, including from the clearing and self-clearing firms.

Plus the fact that the potential costs to me will go up a lot, along with the broker fees I pay now.

Thanks

Ronald Blake
