The Notice section of this Form 19b-4 must comply with the guidelines for publication in the Federal Register as well as any requirements for electronic filing as published by the Commission (if applicable). The Office of the Federal Register (OFR) offers guidance on Federal Register publication requirements in the Federal Register Document Drafting Handbook, October 1998 Revision. For example, all references to the federal securities laws must include the corresponding cite to the United States Code in a footnote. All references to SEC rules must include the corresponding cite to the Code of Federal Regulations in a footnote. All references to Securities Exchange Act Releases must include the release number, release date, Federal Register cite, Federal Register date, and corresponding file number (e.g., SR-[SRO]-xx-xx). A material failure to comply with these guidelines will result in the proposed rule change being deemed not properly filed. See also Rule 0-3 under the Act (17 CFR 240.0-3)

If the self-regulatory organization is amending only part of the text of a lengthy proposed rule change, it may, with the Commission's permission, file only those portions of the text of the proposed rule change in which changes are being made if the filing (i.e. partial amendment) is clearly understandable on its face. Such partial amendment shall be clearly identified and marked to show deletions and additions.

1. Text of Proposed Rule Change

(a) Pursuant to the provisions of Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),¹ the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD") is filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC" or "Commission") a proposed rule change to amend NASD Rule 1022 (Categories of Principal Registration) and NASD Rule 1032 (Categories of Representative Registration) to extend to December 31, 2009 the date by which eligible registrants must complete a firm-element continuing education program to qualify to engage in a security futures business.

Below is the text of the proposed rule change. Proposed new language is underlined; proposed deletions are in brackets.

1022. Categories of Principal Registration

(a) through (e) No change.

(f) Limited Principal—Registered Options and Security Futures

(1) through (4) No change.

(5) Any person who is registered with NASD as a Registered Options and Security Futures Principal, or who becomes registered as a Registered Options and Security Futures Principal before a revised examination that includes security futures products is offered, must complete a firm-element continuing education program that addresses security futures and a principal's responsibilities for security futures before such person can supervise security futures activities. After a revised examination that includes security futures products is offered, a person associated with a member who passes such a revised Qualification Examination for Registered Options and Security Futures Principal (or any other examination covering security futures that is acceptable to NASD) is not required to complete a firm-element continuing education program that addresses security futures and a principal's responsibilities for security futures to supervise activities in such products, except as otherwise required by Rule 1120 generally or by the member firm. Any Registered Options and Securities Futures Principal who intends to qualify to supervise security futures activities by completing a firm-element continuing education program must complete such a program by December 31, 2009[6]. Any Registered Options and Securities Futures Principal who has not completed a firm-element continuing education program by that date will be required to pass an appropriate qualification examination covering security futures to supervise security futures activities.

(g) Limited Principal—General Securities Sales Supervisor

(1) through (2) No change.

(3) Any person who is registered with NASD as a Limited Principal—General Securities Sales Supervisor, or who becomes registered as a Limited Principal—General Securities Sales Supervisor before a revised examination that includes security futures products is offered, must complete a firm-element continuing education program that addresses security futures and a principal's responsibilities for security futures before such person can supervise security futures activities. After a revised examination that includes security futures products is offered, a person associated with a member who passes such a revised Qualification Examination for Limited Principal—General Securities Sales Supervisor (or any other examination covering security futures that is acceptable to NASD) is not required to complete a firm-element continuing education program that addresses security futures and a principal's responsibilities for security futures to supervise such products, except as otherwise required by Rule 1120 generally or by the member firm. Any Limited Principal—General Securities Sales Supervisor who intends to qualify to supervise security futures activities by completing a firm-element continuing education program must complete such a program by December 31, 2009^[6]. Any Limited Principal—General Security Sales Supervisor who has not completed a firm-element continuing education program by that date will be required to pass an appropriate qualification examination covering security futures to supervise security futures activities.

(h) No change.

1032. Categories of Representative Registration

(a) General Securities Representative

(1) No change.

(2) Except as provided in Rule 1031(c):

(A) A person who is registered with the Association as a General Securities Representative, or who becomes registered as a General Securities Representative before a new examination that includes security futures is offered, must complete a firm-element continuing education program that addresses security futures products before such person can act as a General Securities Representative with regard to security futures products. After a new examination that includes security futures products is offered, a person associated with a member who passes such a new Qualification Examination for General Securities Representative (or any other examination covering security futures that is acceptable to NASD) is not required to complete a firm-element continuing education program that addresses security futures to act as a General Securities Representative with regard to such products, except as otherwise required by Rule 1120 generally or by the member firm. Once the new examination that includes security futures becomes available, persons seeking to become a General Securities Representative will be required to pass such new examination (or any other examination covering security futures that is acceptable to NASD) to act as a General Securities Representative with regard to security futures products. Only persons registered as a General Securities Representative prior to the time that the new examination is available ("eligible General Securities Representatives") will be eligible to use a firm-element continuing education program in lieu of passing the new examination or module to engage in a security futures business. Any eligible General Securities Representative who intends to qualify as a General Securities Representative with regard to security futures products by completing a firm-element continuing education program must complete such a program by December 31, 2009^[6]. Any eligible General Securities Representative who has not completed a firm-element continuing education program by that date will be required to pass an appropriate qualification examination to engage in security futures activities.

(B) through (D) No change.

(3) No change.

(b) through (c) No change.

(d) Limited Representative—Options and Security Futures

(1) through (3) No change.

(4) Any person who is registered with the Association as a Limited Representative—Options and Security Futures, or who becomes registered as a Limited Representative—Options and Security Futures before a revised examination that includes security futures is offered, must complete a firm-element continuing education program that addresses security futures. After a revised examination that includes security futures products is offered, a person associated with a member who passes such a revised Qualification Examination for Limited Representative—Options and Security Futures (or any other examination covering security futures that is acceptable to NASD) is not required to complete a firm-element continuing education program that addresses security futures to act as a limited representative with regard to such products, except as otherwise required by Rule 1120 generally or by the member firm. Any Limited Representative—Options and Security Futures who intends to qualify as a Limited Representative with regard to security futures products by completing a firm-element continuing education program must complete such a program by December 31, 2009[6]. Any Limited Representative—Options and Security Futures who has not completed a firm-element continuing education program by that date will be required to pass an appropriate qualification examination covering security futures to engage in security futures activities.

2. Procedures of the Self-Regulatory Organization

The proposed rule change was approved by the Board of Governors of NASD ("Board") and authorized for filing with the SEC pursuant to a delegation of authority granted by the Board at its meeting on January 23, 2003, to the General Counsel of NASD Regulatory Policy and Oversight (or his officer designee) ("Delegation of Authority") to file, without further specific Board authorization, administrative, technical, conforming, and non-substantive changes to NASD rules.

Counsel for The Nasdaq Stock Market and NASD Dispute Resolution were provided an opportunity to consult with respect to the proposed rule change pursuant to the Plan of Allocation and Delegation of Functions by NASD to its Subsidiaries. The staff will advise the Board of any action taken pursuant to the Delegation of Authority. No other action by NASD is necessary for the filing of this proposed rule change. Section 1(a)(ii) of Article VII of the NASD By-Laws permits the NASD Board of Governors to adopt amendments to NASD Rules without recourse to the membership for approval.

NASD has filed the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness. The implementation date will be November 15, 2006.

3. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

(a) Purpose

In 2003, NASD modified the following registration categories to include the activities of engaging in and supervising securities futures: (1) Registered Options and Security Futures Principal (the Series 4); (2) Limited Principal – General Securities Sales Supervisor (Series 9/10); (3) General Securities Representative (Series 7), and (4) Limited Representative – Options and Security Futures Series (Series 42). NASD also required that persons currently registered or becoming registered in these categories complete a firm-element continuing education requirement addressing security futures before they conducted any security futures business. NASD instituted this continuing education requirement to ensure that registered personnel, who may not be familiar with risks, trading characteristics, terms and nomenclature of these products, or the fact that they are subject to the joint jurisdiction of the SEC and CFTC, receive the necessary training.

NASD initially considered replacing the firm-element continuing education requirement with revised qualification examinations for these categories that addressed security futures. However, there are no revision plans at present. Accordingly, NASD intends to continue to require eligible registrants to complete the mandated continuing education requirement before engaging in any security futures business. Thus, the proposed rule change amends Rule 1022 (Categories of Principal Registration) and Rule 1032 (Categories of Representative Registration) to change the date by which eligible registrants must complete the firm-element continuing education requirement to engage in a security futures business from December 31, 2006 to December 31, 2009.

As noted in Item 2 of this filing, NASD has filed the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness. The implementation date will be November 15, 2006.

(b) Statutory Basis

NASD believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act,² which requires, among other things, that NASD rules must be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. The proposed rule change is necessary to continue to allow eligible registrants to complete a firm-element continuing education program that will qualify them to engage in a security futures business.

4. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

NASD does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

5. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

² 15 U.S.C. 78o-3(b)(6).

6. Extension of Time Period for Commission Action

Not applicable.

7. Basis for Summary Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(3) or for Accelerated Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)

The proposed rule change is effective upon filing pursuant to Section 19(b)(3) of the Act and paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder,³ in that the proposed rule change does not significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; does not impose any significant burden on competition; and does not become operative for 30 days after filing. In accordance with Rule 19b-4,⁴ NASD requests that the Commission waive the five-day pre-filing notice requirement specified in Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii) under the Act.⁵ If the waiver is granted by the Commission, the proposed rule filing will become effective upon filing. The implementation date will be November 15, 2006.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

(Release No. 34- ; File No. SR-NASD-2006-118)

Self-Regulatory Organizations: National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change to Extend the Date by which Eligible Registrants Must Complete Firm-Element Continuing Education to Qualify to Engage in a Security Futures Business

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on , the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC" or "Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by NASD. NASD has designated the proposed rule change as constituting a "non-controversial" rule change under paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 under the Act,³ which renders the proposal effective upon receipt of this filing by the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

NASD is proposing to amend NASD Rule 1022 (Categories of Principal Registration) and NASD Rule 1032 (Categories of Registered Representatives) to extend to December 31, 2009 the date by which eligible registrants must complete a firm-element continuing education to qualify to engage in a security futures business. II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, NASD included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. NASD has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

In 2003, NASD modified the following registration categories to include the activities of engaging in and supervising securities futures: (1) Registered Options and Security Futures Principal (the Series 4); (2) Limited Principal – General Securities Sales Supervisor (Series 9/10); (3) General Securities Representative (Series 7), and (4) Limited Representative – Options and Security Futures Series (Series 42). NASD also required that persons currently registered or becoming registered in these categories complete a firm-element continuing education requirement addressing security futures before they conducted any security futures business. NASD instituted this continuing education requirement to ensure that registered personnel, who may not be familiar with risks, trading characteristics, terms and nomenclature of these products, or the fact that they are subject to the joint jurisdiction of the SEC and CFTC, receive the necessary training.

NASD initially considered replacing the firm-element continuing education requirement with revised qualification examinations for these categories that addressed security futures. However, there are no revision plans at present. Accordingly, NASD intends to continue to require eligible registrants to complete the mandated continuing education requirement before engaging in any security futures business. Thus, the proposed rule change amends Rule 1022 (Categories of Principal Registration) and Rule 1032 (Categories of Representative Registration) to change the date by which eligible registrants must complete the firm-element continuing education requirement to engage in a security futures business from December 31, 2006 to December 31, 2009.

NASD has filed the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness. The implementation date will be November 15, 2006.

2. Statutory Basis

NASD believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act,⁴ which requires, among other things, that NASD rules must be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. The proposed rule change is necessary to continue to allow eligible registrants to complete a firm-element continuing education that will qualify them to engage in a security futures business.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

NASD does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

⁴ 15 U.S.C. 78o-3(b)(6).

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not:

(i) significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest;

(ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and

(iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.⁵ The implementation date will be November 15, 2006.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments:

- Use the Commission's Internet comment form

(<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or

⁵ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6).

- Send an e-mail to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File Number NASD-2006-118 on the subject line.

Paper Comments:

- Send paper comments in triplicate to Nancy M. Morris, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549-1090.

All submissions should refer to File Number NASD-2006-118. This file number should be included on the subject line if e-mail is used. To help the Commission process and review your comments more efficiently, please use only one method. The Commission will post all comments on the Commission's Internet Web site (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>). Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room. Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of NASD.

All comments received will be posted without change; the Commission does not edit personal identifying information from submissions. You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly. All submissions should refer to File Number SR-NASD-2006-118 and should be submitted on or before [insert date 21 days from publication in the Federal Register].
