CASE SUMMARY

In claims filed with the NASD on or about March 23, 1987 and on or about June 29, 1987, Claimants John G. Taussig, Jr. Attorney, P.C. Defined Benefit Plan and John G. Taussig, III (collectively as "Claimants") alleged that Respondent James Begley was employed as a registered representative by Respondent Blinder Robinson & Co., Inc. ("Blinder") and made material misrepresentations, executed unauthorized transactions in their accounts and failed to execute orders in their stock accounts.

In its answer and cross-claim filed with the NASD on or about April 14, 1988, Respondent Blinder denied any liability for the actions of Respondent James Begley; that it has supervisory procedures in place and was not negligent in supervising respondent James Begley. Respondent Blinder alleged that Respondent James Begley acted beyond the scope of his employment and therefore should be held liable for his actions.

Respondent James Begley has not filed any responsive pleadings in this action.
