Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA)

RE: Enoch S. Booth (Respondent)
Former General Securities Representative
Former Investment Company Shares and Variable Contracts Representative
CRD No. 4370233

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216, Respondent Enoch S. Booth submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent (AWC) for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against Respondent alleging violations based on the same factual findings described in this AWC.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. Respondent hereby accepts and consents, without admitting or denying the findings and solely for the purposes of this proceeding and any other proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of the following findings by FINRA:

BACKGROUND

Booth first became associated with a FINRA member in 2001. He was associated with Valic Financial Advisors, Inc., a FINRA member firm, as an Investment Company Shares and Variable Contracts Representative and later as a General Securities Representative from March 2001 until January 2021.

Booth is not currently associated with a FINRA member firm.¹ He remains subject to FINRA's jurisdiction pursuant to Article V, Section 4 of FINRA's By-Laws.

OVERVIEW

Booth failed to provide documents requested pursuant to FINRA Rule 8210. By virtue of this misconduct, Booth violated FINRA Rules 8210 and 2010.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

This matter originated from a Form U5 filed by Valic Financial Advisors on January 12, 2021, later amended by Valic Financial's filing on March 2, 2021, reporting the termination of Booth's association with the firm on December 18, 2020 as a result of Booth, "failing to disclose a series of private securities transactions, failing to disclose a self-directed IRA, and providing gift cards to clients in violation of Firm policy."

FINRA Rule 8210(a)(1) states, in relevant part, that FINRA has the right to "require a . . . person associated with a member, or any other person subject to FINRA's jurisdiction to provide information orally, in writing, or electronically." FINRA Rule 8210(c) similarly provides that "[n]o member or person shall fail to provide information . . . pursuant to this Rule."

A failure to comply with a request for documents pursuant to FINRA Rule 8210 is also a violation of FINRA Rule 2010, which requires associated persons to, "observe high standards of commercial honor and just and equitable principles of trade."

On June 29, 2021, FINRA sent a request to Booth for the production of documents pursuant to FINRA Rule 8210, in connection with its investigation into to facts surrounding Booth's termination from Valic Financial. As stated during his email to FINRA on June 29, 2021, and by this agreement, Booth acknowledges that he received FINRA's request and will not produce the information or documents requested.

By refusing to produce the documents as requested pursuant to FINRA Rule 8210, Booth violated FINRA Rules 8210 and 2010.

B. Respondent also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

- a bar from associating with any FINRA member in all capacities.

Respondent understands that if he is barred or suspended from associating with any FINRA member, he becomes subject to a statutory disqualification as that term is defined in Article III, Section 4 of FINRA's By-Laws, incorporating Section 3(a)(39) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Accordingly, he may not be associated with any FINRA member in any capacity, including clerical or ministerial functions, during the period of the bar or suspension. See FINRA Rules 8310 and 8311.

The sanctions imposed in this AWC shall be effective on a date set by FINRA. A bar or expulsion shall become effective upon approval or acceptance of this AWC.

II.

WAIVER OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives the following rights granted under FINRA's Code of Procedure:

- A. To have a complaint issued specifying the allegations against him;
- B. To be notified of the complaint and have the opportunity to answer the allegations in writing;
- C. To defend against the allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a hearing panel, to have a written record of the hearing made, and to have a written decision issued; and
- D. To appeal any such decision to the National Adjudicatory Council (NAC) and then to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a U.S. Court of Appeals.

Further, Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the Chief Legal Officer, the NAC, or any member of the NAC, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

Respondent further specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that a person violated the ex parte prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9143 or the separation of functions prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9144, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

III.

OTHER MATTERS

Respondent understands that:

- A. Submission of this AWC is voluntary and will not resolve this matter unless and until it has been reviewed and accepted by the NAC, a Review Subcommittee of the NAC, or the Office of Disciplinary Affairs (ODA), pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216;
- B. If this AWC is not accepted, its submission will not be used as evidence to prove any of the allegations against Respondent; and

C. If accepted:

1. this AWC will become part of Respondent's permanent disciplinary record and may be considered in any future action brought by FINRA or any other regulator against Respondent;
2. this AWC will be made available through FINRA's public disclosure program in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313;
3. FINRA may make a public announcement concerning this agreement and its subject matter in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313; and
4. Respondent may not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement, including in regulatory filings or otherwise, denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this AWC or create the impression that the AWC is without factual basis. Respondent may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this AWC. Nothing in this provision affects Respondent's testimonial obligations or right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which FINRA is not a party.

Respondent certifies that he has read and understands all of the provisions of this AWC and has been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; Respondent understands and acknowledges that FINRA does not represent or advise him and Respondent cannot rely on FINRA for legal advice. Respondent has agreed to the AWC's provisions voluntarily; and no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth in this AWC and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a complaint, has been made to induce him to submit this AWC.
