Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA")

RE: Anthony Vultaggio, Jr., Respondent
General Securities Representative
CRD No. 5292477

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216 of FINRA's Code of Procedure, Respondent Anthony Vultaggio, Jr. ("Respondent") submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent ("AWC") for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against Respondent alleging violations based on the same factual findings described herein.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. Respondent hereby accepts and consents, without admitting or denying the findings, and solely for the purposes of this proceeding and any other proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of the following findings by FINRA:

BACKGROUND

From February 2007 through March 2017, Respondent was employed with member firm American Capital Partners, LLC ("ACP"). Respondent became registered as a General Securities Representative ("GSR") with FINRA through ACP in July 2007. Respondent subsequently obtained his Investment Banking (Series 79) registration ("IB") in April 2010. On March 30, 2017, ACP filed a Uniform Termination Notice for Securities Industry Registration ("Form U5") disclosing that Respondent had voluntarily terminated from the firm. On July 13, 2017, ACP filed an amended Form U5 disclosing an ongoing internal review that had been initiated on July 7, 2017. The reporting page of the amended Form U5 stated that the firm had been advised by one of Respondent's former clients that, while registered with ACP, Respondent had solicited an investment in a private offering for an entity Respondent represented that he owned and/or controlled. The firm was conducting an internal investigation into Respondent's compliance with, among other things, FINRA Rules 3270 and 3280.

Respondent is not currently associated with a FINRA member firm but remains subject to FINRA's jurisdiction pursuant to Article V, Section 4 of FINRA's By-Laws.

RELEVANT DISCIPLINARY HISTORY

Respondent has no disciplinary history.

OVERVIEW

Respondent refuses to appear for on-the-record testimony thereby violating FINRA Rules 8210 and 2010.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

FINRA Rule 8210(a)(1) states, in relevant part, that FINRA has the right to "require a member, person associated with a member, or any other person subject to FINRA's jurisdiction to provide information orally, in writing, or electronically . . . and to testify at a location specified by FINRA staff . . . with respect to any matter involved in the investigation . . .".

FINRA Rule 2010 requires that associated persons, in the conduct of their business, observe high standards of commercial honor and just and equitable principles of trade. A failure to comply with Rule 8210 is a violation of FINRA Rule 2010.

FINRA began an examination into Respondent's activities while he was employed with ACP. The examination concerned the potential undisclosed offering of securities through an undisclosed outside business by Respondent without prior notice to or consent from ACP. On July 24, 2017, FINRA staff sent a request to Respondent for on-the-record testimony pursuant to FINRA Rule 8210. Respondent was requested to appear for that testimony on August 8, 2017. As stated on his phone call with FINRA staff on July 27, 2017, and by this agreement, Respondent acknowledges that he received FINRA's request and will not appear for on-the-record testimony at any time. By refusing to appear for on-the-record testimony as requested pursuant to FINRA Rule 8210, Respondent violates FINRA Rules 8210 and 2010.

B. Respondent also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

- A bar from association with any FINRA member in any capacity.

Respondent understands that if he is barred or suspended from associating with any FINRA member, he becomes subject to a statutory disqualification as that term is defined in Article III, Section 4 of FINRA's By-Laws, incorporating Section 3(a)(39) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Accordingly, he may not be associated with any FINRA member in any capacity, including clerical or ministerial functions, during the period of the bar or suspension (see FINRA Rules 8310 and 8311).

The sanctions imposed herein shall be effective on a date set by FINRA staff. A bar or expulsion shall become effective upon approval or acceptance of this AWC.

II.

WAIVER OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives the following rights granted under FINRA's Code of Procedure:

- A. To have a Complaint issued specifying the allegations against him;
- B. To be notified of the Complaint and have the opportunity to answer the allegations in writing;
- C. To defend against the allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a hearing panel, to have a written record of the hearing made and to have a written decision issued; and
- D. To appeal any such decision to the National Adjudicatory Council ("NAC") and then to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a U.S. Court of Appeals.

Further, Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the Chief Legal Officer, the NAC, or any member of the NAC, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including acceptance or rejection of this AWC.

Respondent further specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that a person violated the ex parte prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9143 or the separation of functions prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9144, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

III.

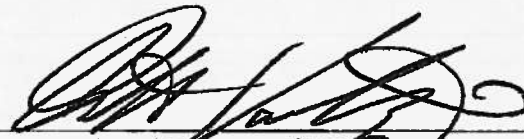

OTHER MATTERS

Respondent understands that:

- A. Submission of this AWC is voluntary and will not resolve this matter unless and until it has been reviewed and accepted by the NAC, a Review Subcommittee of the NAC, or the Office of Disciplinary Affairs ("ODA"), pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216;
- B. If this AWC is not accepted, its submission will not be used as evidence to prove any of the allegations against Respondent; and
- C. If accepted:
1. this AWC will become part of Respondent's permanent disciplinary record and may be considered in any future actions brought by FINRA or any other regulator against him;
 2. this AWC will be made available through FINRA's public disclosure program in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313;
 3. FINRA may make a public announcement concerning this agreement and the subject matter thereof in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313; and
 4. Respondent may not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement, including in regulatory filings or otherwise, denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this AWC or create the impression that the AWC is without factual basis. Respondent may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this AWC. Nothing in this provision affects my: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which FINRA is not a party.

Respondent certifies that he has read and understands all of the provisions of this AWC and has been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that he understands and acknowledges that FINRA does not represent or advise him and he cannot rely on FINRA or FINRA staff members for legal advice; that he has agreed to its provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth herein and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a Complaint, has been made to induce him to submit it.
