

Please keep in place a reasonable and cost effective mechanism for advisors to have their records reviewed and expunged.

There are plenty of examples of either false or frivolous claims against advisors that shouldn't be on their records.

This isn't to say that there also are bad apples who deserve to have marks on their records or to not be in the business of advising.

But to not have a reasonable forum with reasonable costs and mechanism in place to have things heard is simply not fair.

Regards,

Andy Rieger
Senior Vice President
Financial Planning Specialist
Morgan Stanley

Wealth Management	703 739-3694	Direct
333 John Carlyle St. Ste. 650	703-879-1000	eFax
Alexandria, VA 22314	800-336-5405	x3694

NMLS #1252948 CA Insurance License 0C00140

www.morganstanleyfa.com/rieger@morganstanleyfa.com

NOTICE: Morgan Stanley is not acting as a municipal advisor and the opinions or views contained herein are not intended to be, and do not constitute, advice within the meaning of Section 975 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. If you have received this communication in error, please destroy all electronic and paper copies and notify the sender immediately. Mistransmission is not intended to waive confidentiality or privilege. Morgan Stanley reserves the right, to the extent required and/or permitted under applicable law, to monitor electronic communications, including telephone calls with Morgan Stanley personnel. This message is subject to the Morgan Stanley General Disclaimers available at the following link: <http://www.morganstanley.com/disclaimers>. If you cannot access the links, please notify us by reply message and we will send the contents to you. By communicating with Morgan Stanley you acknowledge that you have read, understand and consent, (where applicable), to the foregoing and the Morgan Stanley General Disclaimers.