FINRA Announces Nomination Process to Fill Upcoming Small Firm Vacancy on the National Adjudicatory Council

Petitions for Candidacy Due: September 26, 2018

Summary

The purpose of this Election Notice is to announce the nomination process to fill one Small Firm vacancy on the National Adjudicatory Council (NAC).

FINRA's Nominating and Governance Committee (Nominating Committee) determined it would not nominate a candidate for election in 2018. Instead, any eligible candidates who obtain the requisite number of valid petitions may be included as candidates on the ballot by following the petition procedures set forth in FINRA Regulation's By-Laws and as further described in this Election Notice.

Note: This Notice was distributed electronically to the executive representative of each FINRA member firm and it is posted on FINRA's website at www.finra.org/notices/election/081318. Executive representatives should circulate this Notice to their firms' branch managers.

Questions regarding this Election Notice may be directed to:

- ▶ Marcia E. Asquith, Executive Vice President and Corporate Secretary; or
- ▶ Jennifer Piorko Mitchell, Vice President and Deputy Corporate Secretary, at CorporateSecretary@finra.org or at (202) 728-8949.

Background

The NAC is appointed by the FINRA Board of Governors to review all disciplinary decisions issued by FINRA hearing panels and presides over disciplinary matters that have been appealed to or called for review by the NAC. The NAC also reviews statutory disqualification matters, considers appeals of membership proceedings, exercises exemptive authority and acts in other proceedings as set forth in the Code of Procedure.

Composition of the NAC

The NAC comprises 15 members—seven industry members and eight non-industry members. The seven industry members of the NAC include two Small Firm, one Mid-Size Firm, two Large Firm and two at-large Industry Members. Of the eight Non-Industry NAC Members, at least three are Public Members.

Petition Process for Additional Candidates

Pursuant to Article VI, Section 6.2 of the FINRA Regulation By-Laws, a person who has not been nominated may be included on a ballot for an election to fill an open Small Firm seat on the NAC if:

- a. within 45 days of the date of this Election Notice, such person presents to the Corporate Secretary of FINRA petitions in support of his or her nomination duly executed by 3 percent of the members entitled to vote for such nominee's election; and
- b. the Corporate Secretary certifies that the petitions are duly executed by the executive representatives of the requisite number of members entitled to vote for such nominee's election, and the person satisfies the small firm size classification of the NAC seat to be filled, based on such information provided by the person as is reasonably necessary to make the certification.

As of the close of business on Friday, August 10, 2018, the number of FINRA small firms was 3,348.

Firms may only endorse a petitioner for an open seat that corresponds to the firm's own size classification. No firm may endorse more than one such candidate.

Individuals interested in petitioning to become candidates must complete a candidate profile form (Attachment A) and submit it to FINRA's Corporate Secretary. Upon receipt of a candidate profile form, the Corporate Secretary will forward to the interested individual a list of all small firms eligible to endorse a candidate.

Individuals submitting petitions must provide information sufficient for the Corporate Secretary to determine that the petitions are duly executed by the executive representatives of the requisite number of firms by Wednesday, September 26, 2018.

Voting Eligibility

In the case of a contested election, firms are eligible to cast one vote for an industry candidate who is running for a seat that is in the same size category as their own firm. Therefore, small firms may vote for a Small Firm NAC candidate. All eligible firms will receive a ballot listing the candidates for the vacant seat.

Firm Contact Information

Firms are reminded to accurately maintain their executive representative's name and email address, as well as their firm's main postal address in FINRA's records. This will ensure that important mailings, such as election information, will be properly directed. A firm's failure to keep this information accurate may jeopardize the firm's ability to participate in elections.¹

To update an executive representative's name, mailing address and email address, firms may access the FINRA Contact System, via the Firm Gateway at: <https://firms.finra.org/fcs>.

Endnotes

1. Pursuant to FINRA Rule 4517, firms must update their contact information promptly, but in any event not later than 30 days following any change in such information, as well as review and, if necessary, update the information within 17 business days after the end of each calendar year. Additionally, firms must comply with any FINRA request for such information promptly, but in any event not later than 15 days following the request, or such longer period that may be agreed to by FINRA staff. See FINRA Rule 4517 and FINRA Regulatory Notice 07-42 (September 2007).
