

I hold settlement conferences for major commercial cases in the Common Pleas Courts in Philadelphia. Insurance coverage always is germane to settlement discussions. However, when I act as an arbitrator, insurance coverage is irrelevant and can be prejudicial. So I agree that a party should be able to obtain insurance information in order to try to settle a claim, but that information should NOT be admissible in an arbitration proceeding..

M. Melvin Shralow
ShralowADR, LLC
930 Montgomery Ave., # 101
Bryn Mawr, PA 19010-3037

Tel: 215.603.0076
Fax: 610.525.4122